AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA

TUESDAY, the 13th day of October, 1942.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL:

WHEREAS by Order in Council P.C. 2483 of the 3rd day of September, 1939, the Defence of Canada Regulations were made and established;

AND WHEREAS the said Defence of Canada Regulations were amended from time to time and were by Order in Council, P.C. 4750, of the 12th day of September, 1940, consolidated under the heading "Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1940", and the said Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1940 and amendments thereto were, by Order in Council P.C. 5295, of the 15th day of July, 1941, consolidated under the heading "Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1941";

AND WHEREAS the said Regulations have been further amended from time to time;

AND WHEREAS the Special Committee on the Defence of Canada Regulations, appointed by resolution of the House of Commons adopted on the 4th day of May, 1942, in making its second and final report on the 23rd day of July, 1942, recommended that the said Regulations, as amended, be consolidated and reprinted;

THEREFORE, His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice and under the authority of the War Measures Act, Chapter 206 of the Revised Statutes of Canada 1927, is pleased to order as follows:—

(1) The Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1941, established by Order in Council, P.C. 5295, of the 15th day of July, 1941, as amended, are hereby revoked effective on and from the coming into force of the Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1942, as provided in paragraph (5) hereof.

(2) The attached Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1942, numbered 1 to 66, inclusive, are hereby made and established in substitution for the Regulations hereby revoked.

(3) All regulations, orders, rules and by-laws made under the Regulations hereby revoked shall continue good and valid in so far as they are not inconsistent with the substituted Regulations until they are revoked, varied or extended under the provisions of the Regulations substituted therefor.

(4) The said Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1942 shall be printed and distributed by the King's Printer to the persons whose names appear on the official Mailing List.

(5) The said Defence of Canada Regulations (Consolidation) 1942 shall come into force and have effect on, from and after the 26th day of October, 1942.

A. D. P. HEENEY,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

PART I

GENERAL

1. The ordinary avocations of life and the enjoyment of property will be interfered with as little as may be permitted by the exigencies of the measures which may be required to be taken for securing the public safety and the defence of Canada.

Directions
as to noninterference with persons and property.

The Departments of the Government, officers thereof, and other persons executing the following Regulations, shall observe this general principle.

2. (1) In these Regulations the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

Interpretation.

- (a) "aircraft" means all machines which can derive support in the atmosphere from reactions of the air;
- (b) "ammunition" includes ammunition for any firearm, grenades, bombs and other like missiles whether capable of use with a firearm or not;
- (bb) "constable" includes any police officer, police constable, constable or other person employed for the preservation and maintenance of the public peace;
- (c) "enemy alien" means a person who, not being a British subject, possesses the nationality of a State at war with His Majesty;
- (d) "essential services" means any of the following undertakings:
 - (i) any undertaking for the supply of electricity, gas or water;
 - (ii) any telegraph or telephone service or undertaking;
 - (iii) any railway, light railway, tramway, canal, dock, harbour, pier or lighthouse undertaking;
 - (iv) any irrigation works;
 - (v) any mining or industrial undertaking engaged in the production of war materials or supplies; and
 - (vi) any undertaking which may have been heretofore or may hereafter be declared by the Governor in Council to be essential for the prosecution of the war or to the life of the community;

- (e) "explosive" includes gun powder, blasting powder, nitroglycerine, gun cotton, dynamite, blasting gelatine, gelignite, fulminates of mercury or other metals, coloured fires, and every other substance whether chemical compound or mechanical mixture, used or manufactured with a view to produce a violent effect by explosion, or a pyrotechnic effect, fireworks, fuses, rockets, percussion caps, detonators, cartridges, ammunition of all descriptions, fog and other signals, and every other adaptation or preparation of an explosive as above defined;
- (ee) "justice of the peace" includes a police magistrate, a stipendiary magistrate, or any person having the power or authority of two or more justices of the peace;
- (f) "munitions of war" means arms, ammunition, implements of war, military, naval or air stores, or any articles deemed capable of being converted thereinto, or made useful in the production thereof;
- (g) "radio" means and includes radiotelegraph, radiotelephone and any other form of radioelectric communication including the wireless transmission of writing, signs, signals, pictures and sounds of all kinds by means of Hertzian waves;
- (h) "senior police officer" means any officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police not below the rank of inspector; any officer of like or superior rank of any provincial police force or of any police force of a city or town with a population of not less than ten thousand; or any person upon whom the powers of a senior police officer are for the purposes of these Regulations conferred by the Governor in Council;
- (i) "ship" and "vessel" have respectively the same meanings as in the Canada Shipping Act, 1934;

(ii) "strike" means a lawful strike;

(j) "war offence" means—

- (i) treason in so far as it consists in adhering to the King's enemies, giving them aid and comfort;
- (ii) an offence under any of the provisions of The Official Secrets Act;
- (iii) an offence against any of these Regulations;
- (iv) attempting or conspiring to commit, or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of, or being accessory to, any of the offences specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of this paragraph.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations, the person for the time being in charge of any vessel or aircraft shall be deemed to be the master of the vessel or the pilot of the aircraft, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in these Regulations shall restrict the doing of anything by any servant of His Majesty or by any constable, acting in the course of his duty as such.

(4) For the purposes of these Regulations "person of the Japanese race" shall include a person not wholly of the Japanese race if his father or mother is wholly of the Japanese race and if the Registrar General of Enemy Aliens, by notice in writing, requires him to register as an enemy alien.

PART II

ESPIONAGE AND ACTS LIKELY TO ASSIST THE ENEMY

ACCESS TO CERTAIN PREMISES AND AREAS

3. (1) If, as respects any premises, it appears to the Minister of Justice to be necessary or expedient, in the interests of the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, or for maintaining supplies and services necessary to the life of the community, that special precautions should be taken to prevent the entry of unauthorized persons, he may by order declare those premises to be ^{Protected places.}

a protected place for the purposes of these Regulations; and so long as the order is in force, no person shall, subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by the order, be in those premises without the permission of such authority or person as may be specified in the order.

Any premises in relation to which an order made under this Regulation is in force are hereafter in these Regulations referred to as "a protected place."

(2) Where, in pursuance of this Regulation, any person is granted permission to be in a protected place, that person shall, while acting under such permission, comply with such directions for regulating his conduct as may be given by the authority by whom the order was made or by, or on behalf of, the authority or person granting the permission; and any constable, any person acting on behalf of His Majesty, or any person authorized in that behalf by the occupier of the premises, may search any person entering, or seeking to enter, or being in, a protected place, and may detain any such person for the purpose of searching him.

(3) If any person is in a protected place in contravention of this Regulation, or, while in such a place, fails to comply with any direction given under this Regulation, then, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken against him, he may be removed from the place by any constable, any person acting on behalf of His Majesty, or any person authorized in that behalf by the occupier of the premises.

(4) The Official Secrets Act shall have effect as if references therein to a prohibited place included references to a protected place.

Protected
areas.

4. (1) The Minister of National Defence with the concurrence of the Minister of Justice may, if it appears necessary or expedient so to do in the public interest and for the efficient prosecution of the war make, in respect of any area in Canada, an order declaring that, after such time as may be specified in such order such area shall be a protected area (hereinafter in this Regulation referred to as a "protected area") and subject to the provisions of this Regulation.

(2) The Minister of Justice may, with respect to a protected area, make orders in relation to any of the following matters:—

- (a) to require any or all persons to leave such protected area;
- (b) to prohibit any or all persons from entering, leaving or returning to such protected area except as permitted pursuant to such order;
- (c) to impose upon any or all persons ordinarily resident or actually present in such protected area, such restrictions as may be specified in the order in respect of their employment or business, their movements or places of residence, their associations or communications with other persons, their activities in relation to the dissemination of news or the propagation of opinions or otherwise with respect to the conduct of any such persons;
- (d) to prohibit or restrict the possession or use by any or all persons ordinarily resident or actually present in such protected area of any specified articles and require the delivery up by any such person aforesaid of any such specified articles to any justice of the peace, residing in or near the locality where such specified article is had in possession or to an officer or constable of the police force of the province or city in or near such locality or to an officer or constable of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police;
- (dd) to require any such justice of the peace or officer or constable receiving any specified article required to be delivered by any person under sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph to give to the person delivering the same a receipt therefor and to report the fact to the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police;
- (ddd) to order under whose direction any articles delivered under sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph shall be retained or otherwise disposed of;
- (dddd) to authorize any constable to search without warrant the premises or any place occupied or believed to be occupied by any person reasonably suspected of having in his possession or upon his premises any articles specified under sub-paragraph (d) of this paragraph and to seize any such specified articles found on such premises;

- (e) to authorize the detention, in such place and under such conditions as he may from time to time direct, of any or all persons ordinarily resident or actually present in such protected area;
- (f) to authorize the release, upon such conditions as he may specify, of any person ordered to be detained or any article delivered up pursuant to this Regulation.

(3) Any person in the protected area reasonably believed by any constable or by any person acting on behalf of His Majesty to be contravening any order made under this Regulation may, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken against him, be removed from the protected area or detained therein by any constable or person acting on behalf of His Majesty aforesaid.

(4) This Regulation shall be administered by the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

(5) This Regulation and any order made hereunder shall have full force and effect according to its terms notwithstanding anything contained in any other of these Regulations.

Controlled
areas.

5. Without prejudice to any other of these Regulations the Minister of National Defence may, as respects any area in relation to which it appears to him to be necessary to take special precautions owing to the presence in that area of members of His Majesty's forces or munitions of war, make such by-laws regulating the conduct of persons in the said area as may be necessary for the protection of persons and property in that area, for safeguarding the discipline and efficiency of members of His Majesty's forces therein, or for facilitating the enforcement therein of these Regulations; and such by-laws may make provision for restricting access to that area, and for removing therefrom any person who is therein in contravention of the by-laws.

6. (1) No person shall—

Trespassing
and loitering.

- (a) trespass on or near any premises to which this Regulation primarily applies; or
- (b) unlawfully enter or board any vehicle, vessel or aircraft used or appropriated for any of the purposes of His Majesty's service, or trespass on premises in the vicinity of any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft; or
- (c) trespass on premises in the vicinity of any protected place;

and if any person is found trespassing on any premises in contravention of this paragraph, or is found on any vehicle, vessel or aircraft on any occasion on which he has entered or boarded it in contravention of this paragraph, then, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken against him, he may be removed by the appropriate person from the premises or from the vehicle, vessel or aircraft, as the case may be.

(2) No person shall, for any purpose prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the State, be in, or near, any premises to which this Regulation primarily applies or any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft as aforesaid; and where, in any proceedings taken against a person by virtue of this paragraph, it is proved that at the material time he was present in, or near, the premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft concerned, the prosecution may thereupon adduce such evidence of the character of that person (including evidence of his having been previously convicted of any offence) as tends to show that he was so present for a purpose prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the State.

(3) No person loitering in the vicinity of a protected place, of any premises to which this Regulation primarily applies or of any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft as aforesaid, shall continue to loiter in that vicinity after being requested by the appropriate person to leave it.

(4) The premises to which this Regulation primarily applies are premises used or appropriated—

- (a) for any of the purposes of His Majesty's service or for the defence against, or protection from, an enemy; or
- (b) for the performance of any essential services.

(5) In this Regulation the expression "the appropriate person" means—

- (a) any person acting on behalf of His Majesty;
- (b) any constable;
- (c) the person occupying the premises or being in charge of the vehicle, vessel or aircraft, as the case may be, or any person authorized by him.

(6) No person shall be guilty of an offence under paragraphs one and three of this Regulation respecting premises used or appropriated for the performance of an essential service provided that he is only taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike and that he is not otherwise unlawfully on or near or loitering in the vicinity of such premises.

Prohibition against trespassing
on certain
property.

7. (1) No person shall trespass on any railway.

(2) No person shall loiter on or under or near any tunnel, bridge, viaduct or culvert.

Control of highways over or near defence works and
places.

8. The Minister of National Defence, if he considers it necessary in the interests of the safety of the State so to do, may by order provide for the stopping up or diversion of any highway passing through any protected place or works of defence, or through any land adjoining any such place or works, and for prohibiting or restricting the exercise of any right of way over, or the use of any waterway passing through, any such place, works or land as aforesaid.

CONTROL OF MEANS OF COMMUNICATION

Signalling
to foreign vessels and aircraft.

9. Subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by order of the Minister of Transport, no person shall make any signal (either visually or by means of sound) to any foreign vessel or foreign aircraft;

Provided that the preceding provisions of this Regulation shall not restrict the making of any signal for the purpose only of saving life or of regulating or aiding the navigation, on the water or in the air, of any vessel or aircraft other than a vessel or aircraft being used in the service of a power at war with His Majesty.

10. Subject to any exemptions for which provisions may be made by order of the Minister of Transport no person shall, except with permission granted by or on behalf of a senior police officer have in his possession or under his control any apparatus or contrivance for signalling (whether visually or otherwise) which is of such a nature that it could be used for a purpose prejudicial to the safety of the State: Signalling apparatus.

Provided that the preceding provisions of this Regulation shall not apply—

- (a) in relation to any radio apparatus; or
- (b) in relation to any apparatus forming part of the equipment of a vessel or aircraft, being an apparatus which is required by law to be carried therein.

11. (1) No person shall establish any radio station, as Radio. defined in The Radio Act, 1938, or install, operate or have in his possession any radio apparatus at any place in Canada or on any ship or aircraft registered in Canada, except under and in accordance with a licence granted in that behalf by the Minister of Munitions and Supply.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in The Radio Act, 1938, or in the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, or in any regulation issued under such Acts, the Minister of Munitions and Supply may in his discretion cancel or suspend any licence issued on his behalf in respect of any radio station established on land or on any vehicle in Canada, or on any ship or aircraft registered in Canada, and may control the transmission of messages by such stations, or the working of any radio apparatus used therein in any manner he may deem expedient:

Provided that such cancellation or suspension of a licence shall not render the former licensee liable in any manner for retaining in his or her possession contrary to section 5 of The Radio Act, 1938, the radio apparatus employed in the station for which such licence was previously in force, on condition that the said equipment is dismantled in such a manner as may be prescribed by the said Minister or any person authorized by him.

(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in The Radio Act, 1938, or in the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, or in any regulation made under such Acts, the Minister of Munitions and Supply may, in his discretion, by general or particular order, prohibit the use or operation of any radio apparatus on any ship within Canadian waters or any port or harbour of Canada, and he may direct that any or all of such apparatus or office or room containing same, be sealed during the time such prohibition is effective, provided that if an office or room is sealed and temporary access thereto is required for purposes other than the use or operation of such apparatus the sealing officer may remove the seal and after such access reseal such office or room, and any one who contravenes any such order or who wilfully and without authority breaks or removes or attempts to break or remove the seal attached under direction as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence against this paragraph of this Regulation.

(3) Any person duly authorized by the Minister of Munitions and Supply may take such steps and use such force as may appear to that person to be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any of the preceding paragraphs of this Regulation where a contravention of such has occurred, and for enabling proceedings in respect of such contravention to be effectually taken.

Means of
communication.

12. (1) No person shall knowingly have in his possession, or knowingly send by post or otherwise to any destination, whether within or outside Canada:—

- (a) any instructions for utilizing any means of secretly conveying, receiving or recording information;
- (b) any substance or article manufactured or designed for the purpose of secretly conveying, receiving or recording information; or

- (c) any document or other article secretly conveying or recording any information.

(2) Any person who has in his possession any such instructions as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of this Regulation, shall, if requested by or on behalf of the Minister of Justice so to do, deliver up those instructions to such authority or person as may be specified in the request.

(3) Any person who has in his possession, in contravention of this Regulation, any substance or article manufactured or designed for the purpose of secretly conveying, receiving or recording information, shall, if requested by or on behalf of the Minister of Justice so to do, deliver up that substance or article to such authority or person as may be specified in the request.

(4) Nothing in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Regulation shall be taken to prevent the prosecution of any person in respect of a contravention of paragraph (1) of this Regulation.

(5) In this Regulation the expression "instructions for utilizing any means of secretly conveying, receiving or recording information" includes any code or cipher, but paragraph (1) of this Regulation shall not apply—

- (a) to the possession of any code or cipher which is proved to be intended and used solely for commercial or other legitimate purposes, or
- (b) any document conveying or recording information by means of such a code or cipher, being a document which specifies in clear the code or cipher used.

13. (1) The Minister of National War Services may: Telegraph
Censorship.

- (a) direct or cause the whole or part of the offices, works and property of any cable, radiotelegraph, telegraph or telephone company or any radio apparatus in the possession or under the control of or on the premises of any individual or company, to be entered and possessed in the name of His Majesty, and on his behalf, and to be used for His

Majesty's service, and subject thereto, for such ordinary service as the Minister of National War Services may permit;

- (b) direct any person to assume entire or partial control of the transmission of messages by the cables, apparatus or wires of any such individual or company;
- (c) direct any cable, radiotelegraph, telegraph or telephone company to submit to him or to any person authorized by him all cablegrams, telegrams and messages tendered for transmission or arriving by any such company's cable, wires or radio apparatus, or any class or classes of such telegrams, cablegrams or messages, or to deliver the same to him or to his agent; the said Minister of National War Services may direct any such company to transmit through certain named offices only, all messages (including oral messages tendered to or received by any telephone company) that may be intended to pass out of Canada.

(2) The Minister of National War Services may require any person whom he commissions, directs or authorizes to enter, take possession of or assume control of any office, works or property or part thereof, or of the transmission of messages in pursuance of this Regulation, and may also require any person employed by or connected with any such company as is mentioned in this Regulation to subscribe to the oath appended hereunder:

In the matter of the War Measures Act
and

In the matter of the Defence of Canada Regulations.

I, of the
of, in the of,
....., DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR that I will not, (Occupation)

until relieved of this obligation by notice in writing from the Minister of, transmit or permit to be transmitted any message (by cable, radio, ordinary telegraph or telephone, as the case may be) passing through the office or exchange in which I am employed and intended for delivery outside of Canada, unless I am satisfied on good and reasonable grounds that the said message contains no matter giving information such as is calculated to be or as might be directly or indirectly useful to the enemy, and that I will to the best of my ability learn the subject-matter of all messages, intercept any message containing any such information, and will immediately make known the terms of such message and all facts that I can ascertain as to the identity of the sender thereof to

in the of, this day of, A.D. 19....

(3) All persons who, in pursuance of this Regulation have entered, taken possession of or assumed control of any office, works or property or part thereof, or of the transmission of messages, and also all persons employed by or connected with any such company as is mentioned in this Regulation, shall obey and conform to all such directions as may be issued by the Minister of National War Services.

(4) Whenever in this Regulation the expression "company" is used, either in association with such words as "cable" or "telegraph" or otherwise, it shall be deemed to extend to and to include a person, partnership and a body corporate.

14. (1) The Postmaster General may make provision by order for securing that mailable matter of any such description as may be specified in the order shall not be despatched by post from Canada to destinations outside Canada, except in accordance with the order.

Control of postal communications.

(2) The Postmaster General may make provision by order for securing that, subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by the order, and except in accordance with such conditions as may be contained therein, no document, pictorial representation or photograph or other article whatsoever recording information shall be sent or conveyed from Canada to any destination outside Canada otherwise than by post, or conveyed into Canada otherwise than by post.

No person shall have any article in his possession for the purpose of sending or conveying it in contravention of an order made under this paragraph.

(3) Any person who is about to leave Canada or arrives in Canada, which person is hereafter referred to as the "traveller" shall, if requested so to do by the appropriate officer,—

- (a) declare whether or not the traveller has with him any such article as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Regulation;
- (b) produce any such article as aforesaid which he has with him;

and the appropriate officer, and any person acting under his directions, may examine or search any article which the traveller has with him, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he is conveying or has in his possession any article in contravention of paragraph (2) of this Regulation, and, if the appropriate officer has reasonable ground for suspecting that the traveller has any article about his person in contravention of that paragraph, he may search him, and may seize any article produced as aforesaid or found upon such examination or search as aforesaid, being an article as to which the appropriate officer has reasonable ground for suspecting that it is being sent or conveyed in contravention of the said paragraph or is in the traveller's possession in contravention of that paragraph:

Provided that no woman shall be searched in pursuance of this paragraph except by a woman.

(4) Where any person is found on any occasion in circumstances in which it is reasonable to suppose that he is communicating with or intends to communicate with a traveller, the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Regulation shall apply in relation to the person so found as they apply in relation to the traveller; and where any person is on any occasion found travelling to or from any place in such circumstances as aforesaid, the said provisions shall apply in relation to him as they would apply if he on being so found had been a traveller.

Censorship.

(5) The Minister of National War Services may by order make provision for the censorship of all mailable matter as defined in the Post Office Act, Chapter 161 of the Revised Statutes of Canada 1927, or of any class or classes of such mailable matter as may pass through or be dealt with in any way in the mails of Canada.

(6) Where there is declared or produced to the appropriate officer in compliance with this Regulation, or discovered by the appropriate officer in circumstances in which it ought to have been so declared or produced, any such plate, film or other article as aforesaid which he suspects to have been exposed in a camera but not developed, he may cause to be taken, or require the person by whom it is declared or produced or in whose possession it is discovered to take such steps (including subjection of the article to the process of development) as may be reasonably necessary for enabling the appropriate officer to ascertain whether or not it has been so exposed.

(7) In this Regulation—

- (a) the expression “mailable matter” has the same meaning as in the Post Office Act, Chapter 161, R.S. of Canada, 1927;
- (b) the expression “photographs” includes any photographic plates, photographic films or other sensitized articles which have been exposed in a camera, whether they have been developed or not; and
- (c) the expression “the appropriate officer” means any officer of the Post Office or Customs and Excise, any immigration officer or any constable.

15. (1) The Minister of National War Services may ^{Control of publications.} make provision by order for preventing or restricting the publication in Canada of matters as to which he is satisfied that the publication, or, as the case may be, the unrestricted publication, thereof would or might be prejudicial to the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, and an order under this paragraph may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as may appear to the Minister of National War Services to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order including provisions for securing that documents, pictorial representations, photographs or cinematograph films shall, before publication, be submitted or exhibited to such authority or person as may be specified in such order.

(2) In this Regulation—

- (a) the expression “cinematograph film” includes a sound tract and any other article on which sounds have been recorded for the purpose of their being reproduced in connection with the exhibition of such a film;
- (b) the expression “publication” means, in relation to a cinematograph film, the exhibition of the film to the public, and includes the mechanical or electrical reproduction of any sounds, in connection with the exhibition of the film as aforesaid.

(3) Any person against whom an order is made under this Regulation may make objection to such order to a committee appointed by the Minister of Justice to consist of a person who holds or has held high judicial office.

(4) When objection is made, the functions of such committee shall be to consider and make recommendations to the Minister of National War Services with respect to any objections against such order which are duly made to the committee by the person to whom such order relates.

(5) Notice of objection shall be made to the Minister of National War Services within fourteen days from the date of service of the order in question, which order shall contain a provision notifying the person of his right to make objection and shall refer to the publication or publications in respect of which the order has been made.

(6) On receipt of any such notice of objection, the Minister of National War Services shall forthwith notify such committee who shall make arrangements for the hearing of such objection.

Publications
concerning political, social or religious questions.

15A. (1) Every printed newspaper, pamphlet, circular, handbill, dodger, or other like document having reference to or containing any comment on a political, social or religious question shall bear upon it printed in a conspicuous place and in legible characters the name of an existing natural person of the full age of twenty-one years or of a corporation or of a firm or partnership duly registered under the laws of a province, being the printer thereof, and the usual place of business of such printer, and every person printing, publishing, distributing or posting up or causing to be printed, published, distributed or posted up any such document which does not bear upon it printed in a conspicuous place and in legible characters such name and usual place of business is guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(2) Every person who prints for another any document mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Regulation shall preserve and keep for the space of six months after the printing of the same one copy, at least, of every document so printed by him on which he shall write or cause to be written in legible characters the name of an existing natural person of the full age of twenty-one years duly registered under the laws of a province, being the person for whom he printed the same, and the usual place of abode of such person, and every person who, for another prints any document aforesaid and who omits or neglects to write or cause to be written as aforesaid the name of the person, corporation, firm or partnership for whom such document was printed or to preserve and keep the same, as hereinbefore provided, for the space of six months next after the printing thereof is guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(3) For the purposes of this Regulation "political, social or religious question" shall include any question relating to religious beliefs or practices, racial, political, social, occupational and professional groups or organizations, and the public safety, the defence of Canada, the maintenance of public order, the efficient prosecution of the war and the maintaining of supplies or services essential to the life of the community.

SAFEGUARDING INFORMATION USEFUL TO THE ENEMY

16. (1) No person shall obtain or communicate, or knowingly permit others to obtain or communicate any information being, or purporting to be, information which might be useful to the enemy or of which the dissemination might prejudice the successful prosecution of the war.

General provisions for safeguarding information.

(2) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, information shall be deemed to be such that it might be useful to the enemy or that its dissemination might prejudice the successful prosecution of the war if it relates or purports to relate to any of the following subjects or to the plans or programs made, proposed or under consideration in regard thereto, that is to say:—

- (a) the identification, position, disposition, location, movement, equipment, armament, condition or operations of any of the forces of His Majesty or of any countries allied or associated with His Majesty in the prosecution of the present war;
- (b) the characteristics, performance, complement, location, movement, equipment, armour, armament or use of any motor vehicle, vessel or aircraft constructed or set aside for use by any of the said forces;
- (c) the number, character, movement, or location of any group of prisoners of war;
- (d) the production, characteristics, performance, location, movement or supplies of any munition of war, or
- (e) the location, protection, equipment or capacity of any facilities constructed or set aside for use
 - (i) by any of the forces aforesaid; (ii) by any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft as aforesaid; (iii) for the detention or transportation of any prisoners of war, or (iv) in connection with the production, conveyance or storage of any munitions of war.

(3) No person shall be guilty of an offence under this Regulation if it is made to appear that the information obtained or communicated

- (a) has, before being so obtained or communicated, appeared, or is fairly deducible from information which has appeared, in any printed publication or publications distributed to the public in Canada through government or normal commercial channels;
- (b) is interchanged in private in what the person charged reasonably supposes to be the ordinary course of the lawful employments of the persons between whom it is interchanged;

- (c) is communicated privately or otherwise by a person in the public service who reasonably supposes himself to be required to give it or to be justified in giving it in the course of his duty; or
- (d) is communicated privately or otherwise by a person who reasonably supposes that in communicating it he is acting with the approval of a person in the public service whom he reasonably supposes to be lawfully entitled to give such approval.

17. No person shall communicate or associate with any other person if he has reasonable cause to believe that such other person is engaged in assisting the enemy: Communication with enemy agents.

Provided that in any proceedings taken by virtue of this Regulation in respect of any particular communication or association, it shall be a defence to prove that the purpose of the communication or association was not prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the State.

18. (1) Subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by order of a competent authority, no person shall, except under the authority of a written permit granted by or on behalf of a competent authority,— Photography, etc.

- (a) make or publish any photograph, sketch, plan or other representation
 - (i) of a protected place, or of any part of or object in a protected place, or of an object of any such description as may be specified by order of a competent authority; or
 - (ii) of, or of any part of or object in, any area in Canada as may be specified by order of a competent authority, being an area in relation to which the restriction of photography appears to that competent authority to be expedient in the interests of the safety of the State;
- (b) have a camera with him in any such place or area.

(2) A competent authority may make such orders, and any person acting on behalf of a competent authority may give such special directions, as the said authority or person thinks necessary for securing that photographs, sketches, plans or other representations made under the authority of a permit granted in pursuance of paragraph (1) of this Regulation, shall not be published unless and until they have been submitted to, and approved by, such authority or person as may be specified in the order or directions, as the case may be; and a competent authority, or any person acting on its behalf, may, if that authority or person thinks it necessary in the interests of the safety of the State so to do, retain or destroy or otherwise dispose of, anything submitted as aforesaid.

(3) Any camera found in any such place or area as aforesaid contrary to the provisions of this Regulation, or any camera found anywhere being used or suspected to have been or to be about to be used for any purpose contrary to the provisions of this Regulation, may be seized without warrant by any constable or by any member of His Majesty's forces being in uniform and on duty, and any such camera so seized may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 58A of these Regulations.

(4) For the purposes of this Regulation, "a competent authority" shall mean the Minister of Justice or the Minister of National Defence.

Insurance
inspectors
and reports.

18A. (1) Every insurer, whether company, reciprocal exchange or underwriter, carrying on business in Canada, and every insurance agency or broker inspecting insurance risks in Canada, shall employ, for the inspection of property risks in Canada, only inspectors who have been furnished with a card of identification by the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

(2) Each such insurer, agency and broker shall file forthwith with the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Ottawa a complete list of its inspectors who inspect property risks in Canada, giving for each such inspector his residence and the territory in which he operates.

(3) The said Commissioner shall thereupon issue to each such insurer, agency and broker a card of identification and approval, in such form as he deems appropriate, in respect of each inspector included in the said list of which he approves, having regard to the terms of this Regulation and to the public interest; and on and after the first day of August, 1940, no insurance inspector not so identified and approved shall inspect any such property.

(4) Except as hereinafter provided no report by an inspector on his inspection of any such property, or copy of such report shall be sent to any point outside of Canada.

(5) If any such insurer, agency or broker has no Canadian branch or office in which final action can be taken on any such report, or if for any other reason the report is required to be sent to any point outside of Canada, such report shall be submitted first to the said Commissioner, who, after examination, shall either forward it to the address indicated by the sender, or return it to the Canadian office of the sender with appropriate instructions.

18B. (1) Subject to any exemption for which provision Pigeons. may be made by order of a competent authority, no person shall, except under the authority of a written permit granted by or on behalf of a competent authority, bring, take or send any live pigeon into or out of Canada; and where any officer of the Department of National Revenue finds any live pigeon on any occasion on which it has been brought or sent into Canada or is being taken or being sent out of Canada, then, unless he is satisfied that such bringing, taking or sending is either exempt from the restriction imposed by this Regulation or authorized by a written permit pursuant to the provisions of this Regulation, he may seize and detain such pigeon and may cause it to be liberated, detained, destroyed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with instructions given by or on behalf of a competent authority.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation "a competent authority" shall mean the Minister of National Revenue.

19. (1) Where, either before or after the coming into force of this Regulation, an application has been made to the Commissioner of Patents, for the grant of a patent or the registration of a design, the said Commissioner, if satisfied, on the advice of the Minister of National Defence and the Minister of Munitions and Supply, or either of them, that it is expedient in the interests of the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war so to do, may, notwithstanding anything in any Act, omit or delay the doing of anything which he would otherwise be required to do in relation to the application, and give directions for prohibiting or restricting the publication of information with respect to the subject matter of the application, or the communication of such information to particular persons or classes of persons.

(2) No person shall, except under the authority of a written permit granted by, or on behalf of, the Commissioner of Patents, make any application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, in any foreign country.

(3) The Minister of National Defence or the Minister of Munitions and Supply, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient in the interests of the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war so to do, may give directions to any person requiring him to furnish to such authority or person as may be specified in the directions any such information in his possession relating to any invention, design or process as may be specified in the directions, or demanded of him by the said authority or person.

(4) The right of a person to apply for, or obtain, a patent in respect of an invention or registration in respect of a design shall not be prejudiced by reason only of the fact that the invention or design has previously been communicated to a person in compliance with paragraph (3) of this Regulation, or used by a person in consequence of such communication, and a patent in respect of an invention, or the registration of a design, shall not be held to be invalid by reason only that the invention or design has been so communicated or used as aforesaid.

(5) In connection with the making, use or exercise of any invention or design on behalf of, or for the services of, the Crown, the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of Munitions and Supply may authorize the use of any drawing, model, plan or other document or information in such manner as appears to him to be expedient in the interests of the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any licence or agreement; and any licence or agreement, if and so far as it confers on any person, otherwise than for the benefit of the Crown, a right to receive any payment in respect of the use of any document or information in pursuance of such authorization, shall be inoperative.

(6) In addition to any other penalty which may be imposed, the Commissioner of Patents, with the approval of the Secretary of State of Canada, may, in his absolute discretion subject to such terms and conditions as he may think fit, order the avoidance or suspension in whole or in part of any patent or licence, the person entitled to the benefit of which either is the subject of any State at war with His Majesty or has contravened any provision of this Regulation or any order of the Commissioner of Patents issued under the authority of this Regulation:

Provided always that the Commissioner may at any time, with the approval of the Secretary of State of Canada, in his absolute discretion revoke any avoidance or suspension of any patent or licence ordered by him.

RESTRICTIONS ON MOVEMENTS AND ACTIVITIES OF PERSONS

20. (1) Except in due course of operations of war, no person, being either a British subject or a person enjoying His Majesty's protection, shall, without the permission of the Secretary of State for External Affairs or of a person authorized by him to grant permissions for the purpose of this Regulation, voluntarily enter any enemy territory or voluntarily go on board any vessel or aircraft being used in the service of a Power at war with His Majesty.

(2) In this Regulation the expression "enemy territory" means any area which is under the sovereignty of, or administered by, or for the time being in the occupation of, a power at war with His Majesty, but does not include any area in the occupation of His Majesty or of an allied or associated power.

Restriction
orders and detention
orders.

21. (1) The Minister of Justice, if satisfied, that with a view to preventing any particular person, from acting in any manner prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the State it is necessary so to do, may, notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, make an order:—

- (a) prohibiting or restricting the possession or use by that person of any specified articles;
- (b) imposing upon him such restrictions as may be specified in the order in respect of his employment or business, in respect of his movements or place of residence, in respect of his association or communication with other persons, or in respect of his activities in relation to the dissemination of news or the propagation of opinions;
- (c) directing that he be detained in such place, and under such conditions, as the Minister of Justice may from time to time determine;

and any person shall, while detained by virtue of an order made under this paragraph, be deemed to be in legal custody.

(2) If any person is in any place or area in contravention of an order made under this Regulation, or fails to leave any place or area in accordance with the requirements of such an order, then, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken against him, he may be removed from that place or area by any constable or by any person acting on behalf of His Majesty.

(3) The Minister of Justice shall, at the beginning of each session of Parliament and every four weeks thereafter during each session, make a report to Parliament showing the action taken under this Regulation, which report shall show:

- (a) the number of persons detained under orders made pursuant to this Regulation; and

(b) the number of cases, if any, in which the Minister of Justice declined to follow the advice of any advisory committee which may be appointed under the next following Regulation.

(4) No order shall be made under this Regulation by reason only of a person taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike.

22. (1) Any person aggrieved by the making of an order against him under the powers conferred by the last preceding Regulation may make his objection to an advisory committee as provided in this Regulation. Advisory Committees.

(2) For the purposes of this Regulation the Minister of Justice shall appoint one or more advisory committees, each to consist of three persons, to consider and make recommendations to him with respect to any objections against an order made under the last preceding Regulation. The number of committees appointed shall, in the opinion of the Minister of Justice, be adequate to deal promptly with the cases arising in the different parts of Canada.

(3) The chairman of each committee shall be nominated by the Minister of Justice and shall be a person who holds or has held judicial office.

(4) As soon as possible after detention under an order made under the provisions of the last preceding Regulation, the person against whom the order is made shall in every case be informed of the general grounds on which he is detained and notice of his detention shall, where possible and not contrary to the public interest, be given to his family or such person as he may request.

(5) It shall be the duty of the Minister of Justice to secure that every person detained as aforesaid is informed of his right to make an objection under this Regulation.

(6) A person desiring to make an objection shall deliver to the person having his custody a written notice of objection, signed by the objector, within thirty days from the date of such detention or such further time as the Minister of Justice in his discretion may allow, and a true copy of such notice shall forthwith be forwarded by the person aforesaid to the Minister of Justice for transmission to the chairman of a committee.

(7) The chairman on receipt of such notice of objection shall give such directions as may be convenient and necessary for the prompt and just disposition of the objection.

(8) It shall be the duty of the chairman to inform the objector within a reasonable time before the hearing of the grounds on which the order has been made against him, and, in order to enable him to present his case, to furnish him with as full particulars of the reasons for such orders as in the opinion of the chairman the circumstances permit, and such particulars shall be further supplemented by the committee at the hearing by giving the objector all such further particulars as it shall deem necessary and advisable.

(9) The objector may be represented by counsel, solicitor or agent.

(10) The hearing may take place at any place and it may be adjourned from time to time as the committee shall determine. The Minister of Justice shall cause to be put before the committee all the information about such person available to the Minister except such as is not in the public interest to disclose.

(11) Where the Minister of Justice has referred a recommendation of an advisory committee to the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in order that the latter may have an opportunity of putting such further material as he may desire before the Minister, the Commissioner shall submit such material within a delay of fifteen days or such further time as the Minister may allow.

(12) The chairman or any member of a committee may administer oaths, and a committee may receive and accept such evidence and information on oath, affidavit or otherwise as in its discretion it may deem fit and proper.

(13) A committee shall have all the powers and authority of a Commissioner appointed under Part I of the Inquiries Act, chapter ninety-nine of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1927.

(14) The Minister of Justice may make further rules as to the manner in which objections against an order as aforesaid may be made and disposed of.

(15) The committee shall consider and make recommendations on any matter arising under these Regulations which may be referred to it by the Minister of Justice.

23. (1) No person shall—

of war, etc.

- (a) knowingly assist a prisoner of war to escape from custody, or knowingly harbour an escaped prisoner of war; or
- (b) give an escaped prisoner of war any assistance with intent thereby to prevent, hinder or interfere with the apprehension of the prisoner.

(2) The Secretary of State of Canada may by order provide—

- (a) for regulating access to, and the conduct of persons in, places in Canada where prisoners of war are detained, and for prohibiting or regulating the dispatch or conveyance, from outside such places to or for prisoners of war therein, of any such articles as may be specified in the order;
- (b) for prescribing conditions to be observed in connection with the employment of, or the provision of board or lodging for, prisoners of war in Canada while elsewhere than in places for the detention of prisoners of war.

(3) No proceedings shall be taken, by virtue of this Regulation, against a person in respect of any act done by him when he is himself a prisoner of war.

(4) The term "prisoner of war" used in this Regulation shall include any person detained or interned under these Regulations.

ENEMY ALIENS

24. (1) All enemy aliens legally admitted to Canada and ordinarily resident in Canada, so long as they peacefully pursue their ordinary avocations, shall be allowed to continue to enjoy the protection of the law and shall be accorded the respect and consideration due to peaceful and law-abiding citizens, and they shall not be arrested, detained or interfered with, provided they comply with the requirements in respect of registration prescribed in the next following Regulation, unless the Minister of Justice is satisfied that they have acted, or may act, in any manner prejudicial to the public safety or the safety of the State.

(2) All enemy aliens who—

- (a) are members of enemy armed forces and who attempt to leave Canada;
- (b) attempt to leave Canada, and in regard to whom there is reasonable ground to believe that their attempted departure is with a view to assisting the enemy;
- (c) are engaged or who attempt to engage in espionage or acts of a hostile nature, or who give or who attempt to give information to the enemy, or who assist or attempt to assist the enemy, or who are on reasonable grounds suspected of doing or attempting to do any of the said acts;

shall be arrested and detained.

(3) The power to effect the arrest and detention of all or any person or persons coming within any of the classes mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Regulation shall be vested in the Commissioner, officers and constables of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and in such other persons as may be authorized so to do by the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

(4) The authorities and officers mentioned in paragraph (3) of this Regulation shall be authorized to release any such person so arrested or detained as aforesaid of whose good faith and responsibility they may be satisfied on his signing an undertaking in the form following:

UNDERTAKING

I,, at present of.....,
in the Province of, in the Dominion of Canada, do hereby declare that I am a.....subject.
citizen.

I now, in consideration of my release or exemption from detention as a $\frac{\text{subject}}{\text{citizen}}$ of, hereby undertake and promise that I will report to such officer or official and upon such terms as the Canadian authorities may from time to time prescribe; that I will carefully observe and obey the laws of Canada and such rules or regulations as may specially be prescribed for my conduct by competent authority; that I will strictly abstain from taking up arms against and from doing any act of hostility towards the Government of this country, and that, except with the permission of the officer or official under whose surveillance I may be placed, I will strictly abstain from communicating to anyone whomsoever any information concerning the existing war or the movement of troops or the military preparations which the authorities of Canada, or the United Kingdom or any of His Majesty's dominions or any allied or associated power may make, or concerning the resources of Canada, and that I will do no act and will not encourage the doing of any act which might be of injury to the Dominion of Canada or the United Kingdom or any of His Majesty's dominions or any allied or associated power.

(5) Any such person so arrested and detained as aforesaid, of whose good faith and responsibility the officer or authority making the arrest is not satisfied, or who refuses to sign such undertaking or who, having signed such undertaking, fails to abide by its terms, shall be interned as a prisoner of war in such place as may be provided by the Department of National Defence; and, if it be deemed necessary that guards be placed on persons so interned, such guards shall be furnished by the Department of National Defence. Pending internment any such person may be confined without warrant in any police station, lock-up or gaol, and the keeper or person in control of such police station, lock-up or gaol shall take and safely keep any such person so committed until he is interned or released.

(6) All such authorities and officers who may exercise any of the powers prescribed in this Regulation shall report in each case to the Commissioner, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, stating the name, address and occupation of the person detained or paroled, the date and place of detention and generally the circumstances of the arrest and detention and all such information as may be necessary or useful for the purposes of record and identification.

(7) On the coming into force of this Regulation public notice thereof shall forthwith be given by Proclamation.

Registration
and
internment.

25. (1) One or more offices of registration shall be established, in such cities, towns and other places as may from time to time be designated by the Minister of Justice and officers shall be appointed by the Minister of Justice for each of the offices so established, who shall be called Registrars of Enemy Aliens, hereinafter referred to as "Registrars." For that purpose, members of the public service of Canada, including the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and postmasters, and of the provincial and municipal public services and police, may, with the concurrence of the appropriate authority, be appointed.

(2) The Registrars shall be under the immediate direction of an officer who shall be appointed by the Governor in Council and who shall be called Registrar General of Enemy Aliens, hereinafter referred to as the "Registrar General," and who shall be responsible to and shall report to the Minister of Justice. The Registrar General, subject to the approval and directions of the Minister of Justice, may appoint such assistants to such Registrars, clerks and other officers, as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Regulation.

(3) The Registrar General shall, subject to the directions and approval of the Minister of Justice, have authority to make provisions for a Central Registry at Ottawa and, if necessary, for regional registries and for co-ordination of registration, and generally to carry out the true intent and purpose of this Regulation.

(4) Every enemy alien who has not prior to the sixth day of December, 1941, done so, shall, on or before the seventh day of February, 1942, or as soon thereafter as he becomes an enemy alien, attend before the Registrar or one of the Registrars in the city, town or place within or nearest to which he is or resides and truly answer such questions with regard to the matter referred to in paragraph (5) of this Regulation as such Registrar may put to him.

(5) When any enemy alien attends before him, the Registrar shall register such enemy alien in the manner required by the Registrar General and shall, except in the case of persons of the Japanese race who have registered with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, record the following particulars:—

- (a) his name,
- (b) his age,
- (c) his nationality,
- (d) his place of residence in Canada and in the country of his nationality,
- (e) his occupation,
- (f) the names of his wife and children, if any, in Canada, and
- (g) such other particulars as are necessary for his identification or as may to the Registrar seem advisable.

The Registrar General may make provision for the issuance of an identification document to each enemy alien registered in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.

(6) No enemy alien shall be permitted to leave Canada without an exeat from the Registrar General, but the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police may in any case grant or cancel the exeat to an enemy alien who has been registered.

(7) The Registrar General may issue an exeat to an enemy alien if he is satisfied upon the examination and registry and report of a Registrar that such enemy alien will not materially assist by active service, information, or otherwise, the forces of the enemy. The exeat shall be endorsed upon the identification document in any case in which such a document has been issued or is to be issued to an enemy alien.

(8) If it appears to the Registrar that any enemy alien who is not permitted to leave Canada or who having been permitted to leave Canada has not left Canada pursuant to such permission may consistently with the public safety be suffered to remain at large, such enemy alien shall be required to give an undertaking in such form as is prescribed in the preceding Regulation. If such enemy alien has not given, and refuses to give such an undertaking, he shall be interned as a prisoner of war. The Registrar shall report immediately to the nearest Chief of Police and to the nearest Royal Canadian Mounted Police station and to the Registrar General, the names and addresses of those who are permitted to remain at liberty. Any enemy alien who in the judgment of the Registrar cannot consistently with the public safety be allowed at large shall be interned as a prisoner of war and any enemy alien who has been allowed at large by a Registrar may, upon the order of the Minister of Justice if in his judgment such alien cannot consistently with the public safety be allowed at large, be interned as a prisoner of war.

(9) If any enemy alien who is by the terms of this Regulation required to register, fails to do so on or before the seventh day of February, 1942, or within seven days after the date when he shall come within the description of those required by these Regulations to register, whichever date shall be last, or if he refuse or fail to answer truly any of the questions put by the Registrar, or if being registered he fail to report as hereinbefore required or to observe any of the conditions upon which he is permitted to be at liberty, he may in addition to any other penalty to which he may therefor by law be liable, be interned as a prisoner of war on the order of the Minister of Justice or the Registrar General of Enemy Aliens.

(10) If any enemy alien interned under the provisions of these Regulations has a wife or children living with or dependent upon him, such dependents may be permitted to accompany him.

26. Nothing in the two preceding Regulations shall prevent the Minister of Justice from ordering the release of any enemy alien from arrest, detention or internment, or from ordering the arrest, detention or internment of any enemy alien.

26A. The provisions of Regulations 24, 25 and 26 of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to all persons

- (a) born in territories which were under the sovereignty or control of the German Reich on the third day of September, 1939; or
- (b) born in territories which were under the sovereignty or control of Italy on the tenth day of June, 1940; or
- (c) of the Japanese race other than citizens of the United States of America;

who are not British subjects: Provided that the Registrar General may issue a certificate exempting any such person from the operation of the provisions of the said Regulations, and provided further that the provisions of the said Regulations shall not apply to persons who are nationals of and were born in Czechoslovakia, which for the purposes of this Regulation, means Czechoslovakia as it existed on the first day of January, 1938.

26B. (1) The provisions of Regulations 24, 25 and 26 of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to all persons who have become naturalized British subjects since the first day of September, 1922, who

- (a) at the time of their naturalization were nationals of the German Reich or of any country or territory which on the third day of September, 1939, was under the sovereignty or control of the German Reich; or
- (b) at the time of their naturalization were nationals of Italy or of any country or territory which on the tenth day of June, 1940, was under the sovereignty or control of Italy; or
- (c) in their application for naturalization described their nationality as German or Italian; or
- (d) are of the Japanese race:

Provided that in the case of any such person the Registrar General may issue a certificate exempting such person from the operation of any of the said provisions, and provided further that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to naturalized British subjects, who, at the time of their naturalization were nationals of and born in Czechoslovakia, which, for the purposes of this Regulation, means Czechoslovakia as it existed on the first day of January, 1938.

(2) Should any of the persons mentioned in paragraph (1) of this Regulation be arrested or detained under the provisions of Regulation 24, 25 or 26 of these Regulations they shall have the right to make objection against the order under which they are arrested or detained, and the provisions of Regulation 22 of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to such objections.

Certificate
of exemption.
Roumanian,
Hungarian,
Finnish.

26C. (1) The Registrar General may, on the personal application to a Registrar of any person of Roumanian, Hungarian or Finnish nationality, resident in Canada, issue a certificate exempting such person from the operation of Regulations 24, 25 and 26 of these Regulations and may, at his absolute discretion, at any time, without previous notice, cancel any certificate so issued.

Cancellation.

(2) When any such certificate is cancelled, the person in respect of whom it was issued shall thereupon be subject to all the provisions of Regulations 24, 25 and 26 of these Regulations, except that the time within which he shall register pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of Regulation 25 shall be five days from the day upon which he is notified of such cancellation.

SABOTAGE AND MISREPRESENTATION

etc.

27. (1) No person shall do any act with intent to impair the efficiency or impede the working of any vessel, aircraft, vehicle, machinery, apparatus or other thing used or intended to be used for the purposes of any of His Majesty's forces, or for any undertaking engaged in the performance of essential services: Provided that a person shall not be guilty of an offence under this Regulation by reason only of his taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike.

(2) The preceding provisions of this Regulation shall apply in relation to any omission on the part of a person to do anything which he is under a duty, either to the public or to any person, to do, as they apply in relation to the doing of any act by a person.

28. No person shall knowingly—

- (a) cause interference with the sending or receiving of communications by means of radio; or
- (b) cause interference with, or intercept, telegraphic or telephonic communications made otherwise than by the said means.

Interference with telegraphic communications.

29. No person shall—

- (a) do any act having reasonable cause to believe that it will be likely to prevent or interfere with the performance of their duties by members of His Majesty's forces or the carrying on of their work by persons engaged in the performance of essential services; or
- (b) do, in relation to any person whom he knows to to be a member of His Majesty's forces or to be a person so engaged, any act with intent thereby to render him incapable of efficiently performing his duties as such or, as the case may be, of efficiently carrying on his work as a person so engaged:

Interference with His Majesty's forces, etc.

Provided that a person shall not be guilty of an offence under this Regulation by reason only of his taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike.

30. (1) No person shall—

- (a) do any act calculated falsely to suggest that he or any other person is or is not acting (either generally or in a particular capacity) in the service, or on behalf, of His Majesty or a foreign government, or as a member of a police force or fire brigade, or in the service, or on behalf, of an undertaking engaged in the performance of essential services;

Misleading acts and misrepresentation.

- (b) do any act whereby there are communicated, or likely to be communicated, to the public or to any section thereof any directions, instructions or information falsely purporting to be duly issued or given for purposes connected with the safety of the State or the securing of the public safety; or
- (c) make any defence signal otherwise than for the purpose for which, or otherwise than in the circumstances in which, the making of that signal is authorized by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence, or do any act, or make any statement, having reasonable cause to believe that the act or statement is likely to result in such a signal being made otherwise than for that purpose or otherwise than in those circumstances, or do any act having reasonable cause to believe that the act is likely to be mistaken for the making of such a signal; or
- (d) do any act, or make any statement, having reasonable cause to believe that the act or statement is likely to mislead any person in the discharge of any lawful functions in connection with the safety of the State or the securing of the public safety.

(2) In this Regulation the expression "defence signal" means any signal authorized by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence to be used for any purpose connected with the safety of the State or the securing of the public safety.

False
passports,
etc.

31. No person shall be in possession of a false passport or, being a subject of a Sovereign or State at war with His Majesty, shall pass under an assumed name.

PART III

PUBLIC SAFETY AND ORDER

32. The Minister of National Defence or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation, may, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient so to do for the purpose of meeting any actual or apprehended attack by the enemy or of protecting persons or property from the dangers involved in such attack, make as respects any area in Canada, an order directing that after such time as may be specified in the order, no person other than a person of such a class as may be so specified shall be in that area without the permission of such authority or person as may be so specified.

Evacuation of areas.

32A. (1) The Minister of Pensions and National Health or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation may, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient so to do for the purpose of protecting persons or property from any danger, real or apprehended, arising, or which, in the opinion of the said Minister or of any person so authorized, may arise out of any activities of the enemy, or which may assist the enemy, make as respects any area in Canada, an order directing that after such time as may be specified in the order, no person other than a person of such a class as may be so specified, shall be in that area without the permission of such authority or person as may be so specified.

Protection
of persons
and
property.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Regulation, any order made by the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or by such person or persons as may be authorized by him, which may affect, or in any way relate to, the naval, military or air services shall only be made with the concurrence of the Minister of National Defence, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, or the Minister of National Defence for Air, as the case may be.

Enforce-
orders.

32B. (1) The Minister of Pensions and National Health or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation shall take such action as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient to effect compliance with any order made under Regulation 32 or 32A of these Regulations, and for such purpose may, in respect of any person in any area in respect of which any such order has been made, who is not permitted by or pursuant to such order to be in such area order his detention and removal therefrom.

(2) Any person reasonably believed by any constable or by any other person named by the Minister of Pensions and National Health or by any person authorized by the said Minister to act under this Regulation for the purpose of enforcing any orders made under Regulation 32 or 32A of these Regulations or made under paragraph (1) of this Regulation, to be contravening any such order, may, without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken against him, be detained in such area and removed therefrom by such constable or other person.

dation and maintenance.

32C. The Minister of Pensions and National Health or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation may, in respect of any persons affected by any order issued under Regulation 32 or 32A of these Regulations, or in respect of any persons who, in the opinion of the Minister or of any person so authorized, are involved in any voluntary general movement from any area in Canada due to attack by the enemy, make all such orders as may be deemed by him to be reasonably necessary for the purpose of securing accommodation for any such persons or for the maintenance and protection of their physical well-being or for the protection of their property, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, may,—

- (a) order occupiers of premises in Canada to furnish in such premises such accommodation and food for such persons aforesaid, as may be specified;
- (b) order occupiers of premises in Canada to assume certain responsibility in circumstances specified in such order, for the feeding and care of any children or aged or infirm persons accommodated therein under any such order.

33. (1) The Minister of Pensions and National Health or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation and to the extent so authorized, may by order prescribe the steps which are to be taken by persons in Canada to protect themselves against the dangers involved in an attack by the enemy, and any such order may provide that, upon the giving of any such notice or signal as may be specified in the order, any persons or classes of persons may, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions (if any) as may be specified in the order, enter and remain in any such premises or parts of premises as may be designated in such manner, and by such authority or person, as may be so specified.

Precautions
against hostile attack.

(2) No person shall

- (a) wilfully obstruct any person entering or seeking to enter any premises or part of any premises in accordance with an order made under paragraph (1) of this Regulation;
- (b) eject from any premises or part of any premises any person who is entitled to be therein by virtue of such an order.

(3) The said Minister, or any person authorized by him as aforesaid, may by order prohibit or restrict, or empower a senior police officer to prohibit or restrict, assemblies of persons in any area in Canada, either generally or for particular purposes, in so far as such prohibition or restriction appears to the Minister or such person authorized by him as aforesaid to be necessary in order to minimize the risk of loss of life or personal injuries being caused in that area in consequence of any attack by the enemy; and any constable may take such steps, and use such force, as may be reasonably necessary to secure compliance with any order under this paragraph.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Regulation any order made by the said Minister or any person authorized by him as aforesaid, which may affect or in any way relate to the naval, military or air services shall only be made with the concurrence of the Minister of National Defence, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, or the Minister of National Defence for Air as the case may be.

Damage to premises and contamination by gas.

34. (1) Where, as respects any premises, it appears to any senior police officer or to any person authorized by the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of Pensions and National Health to act under this paragraph, that by reason of the fact—

- (a) that substantial damage has occurred in those premises;
- (b) that works of demolition or construction are being, or are about to be, executed in the premises; or
- (c) that, in consequence of hostile action, the premises are contaminated by any lethal gas or other noxious substance;

it is expedient in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State or the maintenance of public order so to do, the said officer or person may take, or authorize the taking of, such steps, and give such directions, as he thinks necessary for the purpose of the protection of persons and property in, or in the vicinity of, those premises; and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the powers conferred in relation to any premises by the preceding provisions of this Regulation include powers to stop up, and to prohibit or restrict the use of, any highway, and to prohibit or restrict the occupation of premises, so far as may be necessary for the said purpose.

(2) Any person authorized to act under this Regulation may, if satisfied with respect to any chattel that, in consequence of hostile action, the chattel is contaminated by any lethal gas or other noxious substance, and that in order to prevent danger to life or health being occasioned thereby it is necessary so to do,—

- (a) cause to be taken in relation to the chattel all such steps as may be reasonably necessary to render it free from the contamination; or
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable so to render the chattel free from the contamination, cause the chattel to be destroyed.

Control of lights, sounds and traffic.

35. (1) The Minister of Pensions and National Health, or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation, may by order provide—

- (a) for prohibiting or regulating the display of lights of any such description as may be specified in the order;
- (b) for empowering a senior police officer, or any constable acting under the general or special directions of such senior police officer to prohibit or restrict, in the event of hostile attack or the apprehension of hostile attack, the display of any light which would otherwise be lawful under the order;
- (c) for securing that in such circumstances as may be specified in the order such indication of the position of such premises and places, and such warning of the presence of such vehicles, vessels, animals and things as may be so specified shall be given by such means as may be prescribed by order, and for prescribing the manner in which any apparatus for the purpose of giving any such indication or warning is to be constructed, installed and used;
- (d) for prohibiting or regulating the use of roads by any particular class of traffic, so far as appears to the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or to such person or persons as may be authorized by him to act under this Regulation, to be necessary for avoiding danger consequent on compliance with any provisions of an order under this Regulation which relate to the lighting of roads or of vehicles on roads;
- (e) for preventing or minimizing the emission of flames, sparks or glare or the making of noise, so far as appears to the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or to such person or persons as may be authorized by him to act under this Regulation, to be necessary for the purpose of preventing the conveyance of information useful to the enemy or interference with measures taken for the safety of the State;
- (f) for preventing or minimizing the spread of fires due to enemy action or counteraction by such means as the Minister or such other persons so authorized deems necessary and, without restricting the generality thereof, for compelling owners, lessees and occupiers of buildings and other premises—

- (i) to furnish and maintain such equipment, materials and facilities as may be prescribed for the prevention or extinguishment of fires;
- (ii) to remove or remedy any condition which may be deemed by the Minister, or by such other person so authorized, to be a fire hazard;
- (iii) to organize and carry out training in fire fighting and fire practices by their employees in respect to such buildings or other premises, and
- (iv) to maintain fire watchmen and spotters in or upon such buildings or premises.

(2) Any such order may be made so as to apply either throughout Canada, or to any area or premises therein, may make different provision as respects different classes of premises, places, vehicles, vessels, animals or things, may grant, or provide for the granting of, absolute or conditional exemptions from the operation of any of the provisions of the order, and may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as appear to the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or to such person or persons as may be authorized by him to act under this Regulation, to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order.

(3) If any order made under this Regulation is contravened or not complied with in the case of any premises, vehicle or vessel, any constable or any member of His Majesty's forces may enter the premises or board the vehicle or vessel and take in relation thereto all such steps as may be reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the order.

(4) Any constable who has reason to suspect in the case of any vehicle that any order made under this Regulation is being, or has been, contravened or not complied with, may take any reasonable steps for the purpose of inspecting or examining the vehicle, or any part thereof or any lamps thereon or therein, with a view to ascertaining whether or not there is, or has been, any such contravention or non-compliance.

(5) If any order made under this Regulation is contravened or not complied with in the case of any premises, vehicle or vessel, then (without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken against any other person) the occupier of the premises, the person in charge of the vehicle or the master of the vessel, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation:

Provided that, in any proceedings which by virtue of this paragraph are taken against any person in respect of a contravention of, or non-compliance with, such an order on the part of another person, it shall be a defence for the defendant to prove that the contravention occurred without his knowledge and that he exercised all due diligence to secure compliance with the order.

(6) Any person authorized by the Minister of Pensions and National Health to act under this Regulation may cause any whistle, siren or other apparatus for making sound which is situated in any premises to be used in such manner as the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or as such person so authorized by him to act under this Regulation, may determine to be appropriate for indicating the imminence or occurrence of hostile attack, or the cessation of danger therefrom.

(7) Any order issued in pursuance of this Regulation may extend to exercises and tests for the purpose of perfecting the organization necessary for and facilitating the taking of the measures and steps set out in this Regulation.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Regulation, any order made by the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or by such person or persons as may be authorized by him, which may effect, or in any way relate to, the naval, military or air services, shall only be made with the concurrence of the Minister of National Defence, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, or the Minister of National Defence for Air, as the case may be.

(9) Any person shall be deemed to have been authorized by the Minister of Pensions and National Health to act under this Regulation—

- (a) who has received an authorization directly from the said Minister, or, if such person be a minister of any provincial government, his successor in office or his lawful deputy, or a person lawfully acting in his place or stead whilst the office is vacant; or,
- (b) who has been authorized to act by such person as may have been authorized by the said Minister to delegate his power to act thereunder, or, if such person be a minister of any provincial government, by his successor in office or his lawful deputy, or by a person lawfully acting in his place or stead whilst the office is vacant.

(9A) Where at any time prior to the thirty-first day of December, 1941, the said Minister authorized the premier of any province to act under this Regulation, such premier shall for all purposes be deemed to have been authorized by the said Minister to delegate to any person the power of the said Minister to act under this Regulation.

(10) (a) Proof of the issuance of any order made by the Minister of Pensions and National Health under this Regulation may be made—

- (i) by production of a copy thereof duly certified under the hand of the Minister of Pensions and National Health, or
- (ii) by production of a copy of the Canada Gazette in which such order has been published.

(b) Proof of the issuance of any order made by any person authorized by the Minister of Pensions and National Health to act under this Regulation may be made—

- (i) by production of a copy of the authorization of such person duly certified by the Minister of Pensions and National Health together with a copy of the order duly certified by the person authorized to issue the same, or,
- (ii) by production of a copy of the official gazette of the particular province in which such authorization and order consequent thereupon have been published.

- (c) Proof of the issuance of any order made by any person under authority of such person as may have been authorized by the Minister of Pensions and National Health to delegate his powers to act under this Regulation may be made—

- (i) by production of a copy of the authorization of delegation of powers to issue such order duly certified by the said Minister together with a copy of the instrument delegating such powers duly certified by the person authorized to issue the same and a copy of the order duly certified by the person to whom such powers have been delegated, or,
- (ii) by production of a copy of the official gazette of the particular province in which such authorization of delegation of powers, the instrument delegating such powers and the order consequent thereupon have been published.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Regulations,

- (a) no street lights or lights outside of a building, excepting those operated for street lighting purposes only, shall be displayed in any area specified in any order made under the provisions of paragraph (1) (a) of this Regulation for prohibiting or regulating the display of lights, during the hours between sundown and sunrise, and for greater certainty, but not so as to restrict the generality of this prohibition, the same shall apply to advertising and display signs of any description whatsoever, whether Neon signs or not, and all individual lights on or in front of residences or business houses whether for lighting purposes or otherwise;
- (b) no lights shall be displayed in business premises excepting during business hours when not prohibited under any other provision of these Regulations and whilst staff is present on the premises to blacken out the same should an air raid alarm occur.

- (c) The restrictions imposed by sub-paragraph (a) or (b) of this paragraph may, at any time, in whole or in part, be removed either temporarily or permanently by order of the Minister of Pensions and National Health concurred in by the Minister of Munitions and Supply.

Power to require inhabitants
to remain
indoors.

36. The Minister of National Defence or any person authorized by him to act under this Regulation may by order require every person within an area specified in the order to remain within doors between such hours as may be specified in the order and in such case, no person within that area shall remain out between such hours without a permit in writing from a person authorized in the order to issue such permits.

Explosives,
ammunition
and
firearms.

37. (1) The Minister of Justice may by an order made as respects any specified area in Canada provide, subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by the order, for prohibiting (either absolutely or conditionally) the possession in that area of any explosive, any ammunition or any firearm or component part of a firearm; and such an order may be made either with respect to all explosives, ammunition, firearms or component parts of firearms, or with respect to any class of explosives, ammunition, firearms or component parts of firearms.

(2) Every person who, in any such area in Canada as may be specified by order of the Minister of Justice, not being an area in relation to which an order made under paragraph (1) of this Regulation is in force, has in his possession or under his control any explosive, any ammunition or any firearm or component parts of a firearm, shall comply with such directions for securing the safe custody thereof as may be given by the senior police officer for the district in which the explosives, ammunition, firearm or component parts is or are situate, and any such directions may require the removal of the explosive, ammunition, firearm or component parts to such place in the first-mentioned area as may be specified in the directions.

If any directions given under this paragraph by a senior police officer are not complied with, then (without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken in respect of the offence) the said officer may cause the articles to which the directions relate to be dealt with in such manner as may be necessary for securing compliance with the directions.

37A. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Criminal Code no person who

explosives,
ammunition
and
firearms.

(a) is an alien; or

(b) has become a naturalized British subject since the first day of September, 1922, and

(i) at the time of his naturalization was a national of the German Reich or of any country or territory which on the third day of September, 1939, was under the sovereignty or control of the German Reich, or in his application for naturalization described his nationality as German; or

(ii) at the time of his naturalization was a national of Italy or of any country or territory which on the tenth day of June, 1940, was under the sovereignty or control of Italy, or in his application for naturalization described his nationality as Italian; or shall have in his possession any firearm or any ammunition therefor or any dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive within Canada:

(iii) is a person of the Japanese race;

Provided that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to naturalized British subjects, who, at the time of their naturalization were nationals of and born in Czechoslovakia, which, for the purposes of this Regulation, means Czechoslovakia as it existed on the first day of January, 1938.

(2) It shall be the duty of every such person within Canada having in his possession or upon his premises any firearm or any ammunition therefor or any dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive within ten days from the publication of this Regulation in the Canada Gazette to cause such firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive to be delivered to a justice of the peace residing in or near the locality where such firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive is had in possession, or to an officer or constable of a police force of the province or city in or near such locality or to an officer or constable of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

(3) Any justice of the peace or any such officer or constable receiving any such firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive shall give to the person delivering the same a receipt therefor and shall report the fact to the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police under whose direction the property so delivered shall be retained or otherwise disposed of.

(4) If any such person within Canada is reasonably suspected of having in his possession or upon his premises any firearm or ammunition therefor, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive he may be searched or his premises or any place occupied or believed to be occupied by him may be searched by any constable without warrant and if any firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive be found upon the premises or person of any such person or in any such place as aforesaid the same shall be seized and if such search and seizure shall have taken place after the expiration of the period of ten days hereinbefore mentioned the property so seized may be forfeited to the Crown and the person upon whom or upon whose premises or in whose possession any such firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive is found shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(5) Any person who gives, sells, hires, leases or transfers possession of any firearm, ammunition, dynamite, gunpowder or other dangerous explosive to any such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(6) If any question arises under this Regulation, or in any proceeding instituted thereunder, or with reference to anything done or proposed to be done under the authority thereof as to whether any person is an alien or is a naturalized British subject coming within the classes described in paragraph (1) of this Regulation, the onus of proof that any person so suspected or charged is not an alien or is not a naturalized British subject coming within the classes described in the said paragraph (1) as aforesaid shall lie upon the accused in such proceeding.

(7) The Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police shall have power to make orders for the exemption of residents from the provisions of this Regulation, and to make such provisions for licences or permits as may appear to be expedient.

(8) The Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police shall have power to make orders for the exemption from the provisions of this Regulation of bona fide tourists and visitors from allied or neutral countries, and to make such provisions for temporary licences or permits for such persons as may appear to be expedient.

37B. (1) "Firearm" for the purposes of this Regulation means a rifle or shotgun. Licences for firearms.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Criminal Code relating to the issue of licences or permits for firearms, or in paragraph (7) of Regulation 37A of these Regulations, but subject to the provisions of paragraph (8) of the said Regulation, everyone is guilty of an offence against this Regulation and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, or to both fine and imprisonment, or on indictment to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both fine and imprisonment, who, on or after the thirtieth day of September, 1940, has in his possession any firearm without having a certificate of registration for same.

(3) (a) The Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, or any member of the Force duly authorized by him, or any person authorized by the Attorney General of a province, shall register every firearm in respect to which application for registration is made and shall thereupon record the name, address and occupation of the person making the application, the name of the owner, the use, if any, to which the firearm is intended to be put and a full description of such firearm;

(b) Upon registering any firearm a certificate containing the information referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall be prepared in triplicate. The original certificate shall be given to the owner of the firearm; the duplicate certificate shall be retained by the registering official; and the triplicate certificate shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Ottawa: Provided, however, that the giving of a certificate of registration shall be refused to the owner of the firearm, or if given shall be cancelled, if the said Commissioner or Attorney General is not satisfied that the possession of such firearm by the owner thereof is in the interest of the public safety or the safety of the State;

(c) In the event of a certificate of registration of any firearm being refused or cancelled as aforesaid, the owner thereof shall within ten days from such refusal or cancellation deliver, or cause to be delivered, such firearm to a justice of the peace or constable and the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of Regulation 37A of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to such owner and firearm.

(4) If any person is reasonably suspected of having in his possession or upon his premises, contrary to the provisions of this Regulation, any firearm for which a certificate of registration has not been applied for or has been refused or cancelled pursuant to this Regulation, or if the Attorney General of the province is satisfied that it is in the interest of the public safety or the safety of the State so to do, and so directs, he may be searched, or his premises or any place occupied or believed to be occupied by him may be searched, for any firearm by any constable without warrant, and if any such firearm be found upon any such person or his premises, or in any such place as aforesaid, the same shall be seized and forfeited to the Crown to be disposed of as the Attorney General of the province in which such forfeiture takes place may direct.

(5) In any prosecution for an offence against this Regulation the onus of proof that the accused has a certificate of registration for any firearm, or obtained a permit therefor, shall lie upon the accused.

(6) No person (in this paragraph referred to as "vendor") shall sell or barter or, without lawful excuse, give or transfer possession of any firearm to any person who is not the holder of a permit to purchase. In the event of such a transaction between a vendor and the holder of a permit to purchase, the vendor shall acquire and retain such permit.

(7) No person shall sell or offer for sale any firearm without having a permit so to do.

(8) No person shall buy any firearm for resale without having a permit so to do, and every person having such permit shall keep a record of any purchase, the date thereof, and such sufficient description of the firearm purchased as may be necessary to identify it, and shall send a duplicate of such record by registered mail to the person who issued the permit.

(9) The provisions of subsections two and three of section one hundred and twenty of the Criminal Code respecting the issue of permits in Form 76C, 76D and 76E for pistols and revolvers shall apply mutatis mutandis to firearms under this Regulation.

(10) Every person who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (6), (7), (8) or (9) of this Regulation shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation and liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and costs, or to imprisonment for three months, or to both fine and costs and imprisonment.

37C. (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Criminal Code relating to the registration of pistols or revolvers, or in paragraph (7) of Regulation 37A of these Regulations, but subject to the provisions of revolver

or pistol
cancelled.

of paragraph (8) of the said Regulation, the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police or the Attorney General of a province may cancel the registration made pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Code of any pistol or revolver if the Commissioner or Attorney General as aforesaid is not satisfied that the possession of such pistol or revolver by the owner thereof is in the interest of the public safety or the safety of the State;

- (b) In the event of such registration being so cancelled the owner of the pistol or revolver shall within ten days from the date of such cancellation deliver, or cause to be delivered, such pistol or revolver to a justice of the peace or constable, and the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of Regulation 37A of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to such owner and pistol or revolver;
- (c) If the owner of such pistol or revolver fails to comply with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this Regulation, the provisions of paragraph (4) of Regulation 37B of these Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to such owner and pistol or revolver, and for the purposes of the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-one A of the Criminal Code such pistol or revolver shall be deemed not to have been registered.

Manufacture
and transport of
articles.

38. (1) If, as respects any premises in Canada used for producing, treating, handling or keeping any articles or substances, the Minister of Mines and Resources is satisfied that precautions should be taken against special risks arising from the nature of the articles or substances, he may by order make such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient for protecting persons and property in, or in the vicinity of, such premises against any such risks as aforesaid; and any such order may authorize the searching of persons entering or seeking to enter, or being within, any premises to which the order applies.

(2) The appropriate Minister may by order make, in relation to the conveyance of any description of articles or substances specified in the order, such provision as appears to him to be necessary or expedient for protecting persons and property against special risks arising, in connection with such conveyance, by reason of the nature of those articles or substances.

For the purposes of this paragraph the expression "the appropriate Minister" means

- (a) as respects conveyance by railway, aircraft or vessel, the Minister of Transport;
- (b) as respects conveyance otherwise than by railway, aircraft or vessel, the Minister of Mines and Resources.

(3) In relation to any premises in the possession or under the control of the Department of National Defence, and in relation to any vehicle or vessel in the possession of the said Department, paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Regulation shall have effect as if for the references in those paragraphs to the Minister of Mines and Resources and the appropriate Minister, respectively, there were substituted references to the Minister of National Defence.

38A. (1) Every person who has in his possession a match or other fire producing device in or upon any premises in Canada used for producing, treating, handling or keeping explosives, pyrotechnics for the armed forces or small arms ammunition, or used for the filling of bombs, shells, mines, torpedoes, depth charges, or used for the manufacture of primers, detonators or time fuses or other similar munitions of war, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than fifty and not more than one hundred dollars, and in default of payment of the fine imposed to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

- (d) "Person of the Japanese race" means a person wholly of the Japanese race.

PART IV

SHIPS AND AIRCRAFT

General
control of
shipping.

40. (1) Every vessel within the ports of Canada or Canadian waters, as defined in the Customs Act, shall comply with such orders regulating the movement, navigation, pilotage, anchorage, mooring, berthing, lighting and related matters with respect to the vessel as may be issued by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services and shall obey any orders incidental to such matters issued by the naval officer in charge of the port or the naval officer charged with the administration of the port and shall obey any order given, whether by signal or otherwise, by any officer in command of any of His Majesty's Canadian ships or any other of His Majesty's ships or any naval, military or air force officer engaged in the defence of the coasts of Canada.

(2) Every vessel of Canadian registry or licence where-soever it may be shall comply with such orders regulating the movement, navigation, pilotage, anchorage, mooring, berthing, lighting and related matters as may be issued by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, and shall obey any orders incidental to such matters given, whether by way of signal or otherwise, by any officer in command of any of His Majesty's Canadian ships or of any other of His Majesty's ships, or by any naval, military or air force officer, engaged in the defence of the coasts of Canada.

(3) If the master or other person in command or charge of such vessel fails to comply with or to obey any order issued or given under this Regulation, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(4) Any person acting on behalf of His Majesty may, in relation to any vessel, use such force as may appear to that person to be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any order under this Regulation relating to the vessel.

(5) (a) Proof of the issuance of any order made by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services under this Regulation may be made:

(i) by the production of a copy thereof duly certified under the hand of the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services; or

(ii) by the production of a copy of the Canada Gazette in which such order has been published.

(b) Proof of the issuance of any order made by the naval officer in charge of a port or the naval officer charged with the administration of a port under this Regulation may be made:

(i) by the production of a copy of the order duly certified by the said naval officer as being an order made by him; or

(ii) by production of a copy of the official gazette of the particular province in which such order has been published; or

- (iii) by the production of a copy of a weekly or daily newspaper published in or in the vicinity of the place where such port is located, having a circulation in such place, in which such order has been published.

(6) The preceding provisions of this Regulation shall apply in relation to water borne aircraft on the surface of the water as those provisions apply in relation to vessels, and water borne aircraft taking off from or alighting on the water shall be deemed, for the purpose of this Regulation, to be on the surface of the water while in contact therewith.

Permission for ship or aircraft to leave port or place or Canadian
waters.

40A. (1) Any person authorized by the Minister of National Defence or by the Minister of National Revenue to act under this Regulation may, if it appears to that person to be necessary in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State, the defence of Canada, the efficient prosecution of the war, or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community so to do, give, with respect to any particular ship or aircraft at a port or place in Canada or within Canadian waters, directions that the ship or aircraft shall not leave the port or place or Canadian waters until permitted to do so by such authority or person as may be specified in the directions and, in the case of a ship or aircraft in Canadian waters, that such ship or aircraft shall, in addition, proceed to a Canadian port or place named in the directions; and, if that ship or aircraft leaves or attempts to leave the port or place in contravention of any such directions as aforesaid or fails to proceed to the Canadian port or place named in the directions, the master of the ship or pilot of the aircraft, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation: Provided that the directions given under this paragraph shall cease to have effect seventy-two hours after the time at which they are given unless in the meantime they have been confirmed by the Minister of National Defence or the Minister of National Revenue.

(2) Any person acting on behalf of His Majesty may, in relation to any ship or aircraft, take such steps, and use such force, as may appear to that person to be reasonably necessary to secure compliance with any directions given under this Regulation with respect to the ship or aircraft or, where an offence against this Regulation has occurred in the case of the ship or aircraft, for enabling proceedings in respect of the offence to be effectually taken.

41. (1) A transfer made on or after the date on which these Regulations come into force of a British ship registered in Canada, or of a share therein or of a mortgage thereof (including transfer of mortgage) to a person not qualified to own a British ship, or to a foreign-controlled company, shall not have any effect unless the transfer is approved by the Minister of Transport; and any person who makes, or purports to make, such a transfer after the coming into force of this Regulation without that approval shall be guilty of an indictable offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Transfer
of ships registered
in Canada

(2) The expression "foreign-controlled company" means any corporation in respect of which

- (a) the majority of the directors, or persons occupying the position of directors by whatever name called, are not British subjects; or
- (b) the majority of the voting power is in the hands of persons who are not British subjects, or who exercise their voting powers directly or indirectly on behalf of persons who are not British subjects; or
- (c) the control is by any other means whatever in the hands of persons who are not British subjects; or
- (d) the executive is a foreign-controlled company, or the majority of the executive are appointed by a foreign-controlled company.

A corporation shall not be deemed to be a British subject for the purposes of this Regulation unless it is established in and subject to the laws of some part of His Majesty's dominions or of some British protectorate, and has its principal place of business therein.

(3) The Minister of Transport may require any person who is the owner or mortgagee of a British ship registered in Canada, or who applies to be registered as the owner or mortgagee of a British ship registered in Canada, to furnish to him such particulars as appear necessary to him for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not that person is, or is a trustee for, or otherwise represents, a foreign-controlled company, and, in the case of a corporation, may also require the secretary, or any other officer of the corporation performing the duties of secretary, to furnish those particulars.

If any person fails to supply such particulars as it is in his power to give when required, or furnishes particulars which are false in any material particular, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Regulation.

(4) Where, after the coming into force of this Regulation, any person who is the owner or mortgagee of a British ship registered in Canada, ceases to be a British subject or becomes a foreign-controlled company, that ship, or, in the case of a mortgagee of a ship, the interest of the mortgagee, shall be subject to forfeiture in accordance with the procedure provided in Part I of the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, as if it had become so subject under such Part.

(5) No application for the transfer of the registration of a British ship registered in Canada, from a port of registry in Canada to a port of registry outside of Canada, shall hereafter be made or granted without the written consent of the Minister of Transport.

(6) In this Regulation, unless the context otherwise requires, any reference to a ship shall include a reference to a share in a ship.

Aircraft.

41A. Regulation 41 shall apply to aircraft, as defined in The Air Regulations, 1938, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the expression "aircraft" was used in the said Regulation in the place and stead of the expression "ship," provided that when the expression "aircraft" is so used, any reference in the said Regulation, to a share or mortgage, or to a mortgagee, or to the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, shall be deleted therefrom, as also paragraphs (5) and (6) thereof.

Issue of licences.

42. After the coming into force of the preceding Regulation no licence for a vessel not required to be registered under the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, shall be issued under sections 106 to 112 of that Act unless the issue thereof has been approved by the Minister of Transport, and no transfer of any interest in any such vessel shall be effective unless made by an instrument in writing approved by the Minister of Transport and filed with the Collector or other chief officer of the Customs at a port or place in Canada, or, in the case of a licensed vessel, at the port or place in Canada at which the licence of such vessel has been issued.

43. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the Minister of National Defence may, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient for the safety of British ships registered in Canada and of persons on board such ships so to do, make provision by order—

for safety of British ships
in Canada.*

- (a) for securing that any such ship to which the order applies shall not, except under permission granted by or on behalf of the Minister of National Defence, proceed to sea from any port (whether within or outside Canada) unless such requirements in respect of the alteration of the structure or external appearance of the ship, and in respect of the equipping of the ship with any particular apparatus, contrivance or appliance, as may be contained in the order have been complied with;
- (b) for securing the proper maintenance and efficient use of any apparatus, contrivance or appliance with which any such ship is equipped in pursuance of the order;
- (c) for any incidental and supplementary matters for which it appears to the Minister of National Defence to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order to provide;

and an order under this Regulation may be made so as to apply either to a particular British ship registered in Canada or to such ships of a particular class, and so as to apply to any such ship or ships either wherever it or they may be or while in such waters, or engaged on such voyages, as may be specified in the order.

(2) If any such ship proceeds or attempts to proceed to sea in contravention of an order made under this Regulation, the master of the ship and the person having the management thereof shall each be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(3) Any person acting on behalf of His Majesty may, in relation to any such ship, take such steps, and use such force, as may appear to that person to be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any order under this Regulation relating to the ship, or, where an offence against this Regulation has occurred in the case of the ship, for enabling proceedings in respect of the offence to be effectually taken.

tonnage.

44. (1) Without prejudice to any navigation order and subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the Canadian Shipping Board may make provision by order for imposing in relation to any British ship registered in Canada to which the order applies, restrictions in respect of all or any of the following matters, that is to say:—

- (a) the trades in which the ship may be engaged and the voyages which may be undertaken by the ship;
- (b) the classes of cargoes or passengers which may be carried in the ship; and
- (c) the chartering of the ship, and the terms and conditions upon which cargoes or passengers may be carried in the ship;

and any such order may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as appear to the Canadian Shipping Board to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the order, including provisions for securing that any ship to which the order applies shall not leave any port (whether within or outside Canada) except under the authority of a licence granted by or on behalf of the said Board and for requiring any such ship to comply with any directions given on behalf of the said Board as to the ports to which the ship is to proceed for any particular purposes.

Any provisions of an order under this paragraph may be framed so as to apply to all British ships registered in Canada or to any class of such ships or to any one of such ships, and so as to apply to any such ship or ships wherever it or they may be or while in such waters, or engaged in such trades or on such voyages, as may be specified in the order.

(2) If any such ship leaves or attempts to leave any port in contravention of an order made under this Regulation, or if otherwise there is any contravention of such an order in the case of a ship, the master of the ship and the person having the management thereof shall each be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(3) Any person acting on behalf of His Majesty may, in relation to any such ship, take such steps, and use such force, as may appear to that person to be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any order under this Regulation relating to the ship, or, where an offence against this Regulation has occurred in the case of the ship, for enabling proceedings in respect of the offence to be effectually taken.

45. Any person lawfully engaged to serve on board any ship belonging to, or chartered or requisitioned by, or on behalf of His Majesty, who in Canada deserts from his ship or absents himself therefrom without leave may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Canada Shipping Act, 1934, be conveyed on board his ship by, or under the direction of, any one or more of the following persons, that is to say, the master of the ship, the mate of the ship, the person having the management of the ship, any constable, or any commissioned officer in His Majesty's forces.

from ships.

46. No seaman lawfully engaged to serve on board any ship belonging to, or chartered, or requisitioned by or on behalf of His Majesty, shall be absent from his ship, whether upon duty or otherwise, without a written pass which shall state the period of his authorized absence, duly signed by the master, mate, purser, or first engineer of his ship, and any such seaman so being absent without such a pass, or being found without the same in his possession, shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation and shall moreover be subject to the exercise of the authority conferred by the next preceding Regulation, as if absent from his ship without leave.

Seamen
required to have written pass when absent
from their ship.

Assisting
deserters.

46A. No person shall conceal, receive, aid or assist any seaman whom he knows or has reasonable cause to believe has deserted or is about to desert his ship.

Control of Aviation.

47. Save and except as may be permitted by the Minister of Transport the navigation over Canada and Canadian waters, as defined by the Customs Act, of all aircraft other than aircraft exclusively employed in His Majesty's Service, is prohibited. The permission herein mentioned may extend to the navigation of all said aircraft, or of any specified aircraft, over Canada and Canadian waters, as so defined, or over any specified area or with respect to any time or any specified time.

ESSENTIAL SUPPLIES

Requisitioning of property
other than land.

48. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided the appropriate Minister, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient so to do in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, or for maintaining supplies and services necessary to the life of the community, may requisition—

- (a) any chattel in Canada (including any vessel or aircraft or any article on board a vessel or aircraft); and
- (b) any British ship or aircraft registered in Canada or any article on board such British ship or aircraft, wherever the ship or aircraft may be;

and may give such directions as appear to him to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisition:

Provided that the preceding provisions of this Regulation shall not authorize the requisitioning of any British ship or aircraft registered elsewhere than in Canada, or of anything on board such a ship or aircraft.

(2) If the appropriate Minister requisitions any property under this Regulation, he may use or deal with, or authorize the use of or dealing with, the property for such purpose and in such manner as he thinks expedient in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, or for maintaining supplies and services necessary to the life of the community, and may hold, or sell or otherwise dispose of, the property as if he were the owner thereof.

(3) The appropriate Minister, if it appears to him to be necessary for the effectual exercise of his powers under paragraph (1) of this Regulation so to do, may, by order made as respects the whole of Canada or any part thereof,—

- (a) direct that no person who, at the time when the order takes effect, has in his possession or under his control, at any premises in the area to which the order relates, any such articles as may be described in the order, shall remove the articles, or cause or permit them to be removed, from the premises until the removal of the articles therefrom is permitted by such authority or person as may be specified in the order;
- (b) require the owner or occupier of any premises in the said area to send to such authority or person as may be specified in the order a written declaration stating or estimating whether or not, on such date as may be specified in the order, any such articles as aforesaid were or will be on the premises, and if so, the number or quantity of those articles which was or will be on the premises on that date, according as the order may direct.

(4) The appropriate Minister may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions as he thinks proper, delegate all or any of his functions under paragraphs (1) to (3) of this Regulation to any particular persons or class of persons.

(5) In this Regulation the expression “the appropriate Minister” means:

- (a) in any matter that affects or relates to the Department of National Defence, the Minister of National Defence;
- (b) in any matter that affects or relates to the Department of National Defence for Air, the Minister of National Defence for Air;

- (c) in any matter that affects or relates to the Department of National Defence for Naval Services, the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services; or
- (d) in any matter that affects or relates to the carrying out of his duties or powers under the Department of Munitions and Supply Act, the Minister of Munitions and Supply.

Power to do work
on land.

48A. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any statute or other law, any person authorized by the appropriate Minister to act under this Regulation may, for any purpose connected with the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, or the maintenance of supplies and services necessary to the life of the community, do any work on any land.

(2) The appropriate Minister, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient, in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, or for maintaining supplies and services necessary to the life of the community, may by order provide for prohibiting or restricting the doing on any particular land of any such work as may be specified in the order.

(3) No person, other than a constable or a servant of His Majesty acting in the course of his duty as such, shall, except with permission granted by or on behalf of the appropriate Minister remove, alter or tamper with any work done, or thing placed in, on or over any land in pursuance of this Regulation, and the person for the time being occupying such land shall not be subject to any liability or obligation by reason of such land being in a dangerous condition as the result of the doing of such work.

(4) Anything removed from any land in pursuance of this Regulation may be sorted, stored and, in so far as it appears to be valueless, disposed of in such manner as may be directed by any person authorized in that behalf by the appropriate Minister.

(5) For the purpose of this Regulation the doing of work on land means the doing of any work on, over, or below the surface of the land, and, in particular, includes the making of any erection or excavation, the placing of any thing, and the maintenance, removal, demolition, pulling down, destruction, or rendering useless, of anything on, over or below that surface.

(6) In this Regulation the expression "appropriate Minister" shall have the same meaning as the like expression has in Regulation 48.

(7) The appropriate Minister may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions as he thinks proper, delegate all or any of his functions under this Regulation to any particular person or class of persons.

(8) The powers conferred by or under this Regulation shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers conferred by any statute or other law.

49. (1) The Minister of Transport, or any person authorized by him may by order in writing direct that the control, management or operation of any railway, light railway, tramway or road transport, including any railway or road transport owned or controlled by His Majesty, be exercised and performed in such manner as the said Minister may think proper in the interests of the public safety, the safety of the State, or the efficient prosecution of the war, or for maintaining supplies and services necessary to the life of the community.

Control
transport.

(2) The Minister of Transport, or any person authorized by him, may by order in writing give directions for prohibiting or restricting, within such area and for such period as may be specified in the order, the public use of any highway or railway, including any railway owned or controlled by His Majesty, so as to facilitate the movement on such highway or by such railway of His Majesty's forces or of war supplies.

50. Where—

- (a) the draft of a licence for the establishment of a factory or magazine for gunpowder or other explosives is, in pursuance of the Explosives Act, submitted to the Minister of Mines and Resources by the applicant for the licence; or

Licensing
of explosives
factories.

- (b) an application for an amending licence for the making of any alteration in such a factory or magazine is made to the said Minister in pursuance of the said Act;

the said Minister may, instead of taking any other steps which he is required by the said Act to take in respect of the application, grant the licence or amending licence, as the case may be, subject to such conditions, if any, as he may think proper, and any licence granted under this Regulation shall have effect for the purposes of the Explosives Act, as if it had been duly granted under that Act.

Handling
conveyance
of
ammunition,
etc., in Canadian
waters.

51. (1) The Minister of Transport may make such regulations as may be necessary for regulating the shipping, unshipping, handling, storage and conveyance of ammunition, explosives and inflammable substances in any ports or in Canadian waters as defined in the Customs Act: Provided that no such regulation shall apply to the shipping, unshipping, handling or conveyance of ammunition, explosives or inflammable substances in any vessel or aircraft in the service of, or under the control of His Majesty.

(2) Any reference in this Regulation to shipping or to unshipping shall be construed as including a reference to putting on board aircraft or to unloading from aircraft, as the case may be.

Active Militia—liability
for service.

51A. (1) The Active Militia or any corps thereof shall be liable for service as hereinafter in this Regulation provided.

(2) In any case where a riot or disturbance of the peace or without limitation by the foregoing any other action whatsoever occurs or is anticipated as likely to occur which in the opinion of the Minister of Munitions and Supply threatens to obstruct or delay the production, transportation, storage or delivery of munitions of war or supplies or the construction, remodelling, repair or demolition of a defence project the Minister may request the Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to take such measures as in the opinion of the said Commissioner are necessary to prevent, suppress or terminate such riot, disturbance or other action as aforesaid, actual or anticipated, and the Commissioner shall take such measures accordingly.

(3) If the municipal and provincial police forces and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police available for the purpose are, in the opinion of the Commissioner, inadequate or ineffectual to prevent, suppress or terminate such riot, disturbance or other action as aforesaid, the Commissioner shall immediately notify the Minister of Munitions and Supply accordingly.

(4) Thereupon the Minister of Munitions and Supply may notify the Minister of National Defence of the circumstances aforesaid and the Minister of National Defence shall thereupon issue a direction that the Active Militia take such measures as may be necessary to prevent, suppress or terminate such riot, disturbance or other action as aforesaid and the Active Militia shall take such measures accordingly.

(5) The officers and men of such Active Militia when so employed, shall, without any further authority or appointment, and without taking oath of office, be held to have and may exercise, in addition to their military powers and duties, all the powers and duties of special constables, so long as they remain so employed, but they shall act only as a military body, and shall be individually liable to obey the orders of their military superior officer.

(6) Every officer and man of the Active Militia, at all times and while so employed, shall obey the orders of his military superior officer.

(7) A strike or the peaceful persuasion of a person by another to take part in a strike shall not be an action to be prevented or suppressed under this Regulation.

51B. Every person employed in the production, transportation, storage or delivery of munitions of war or supplies, or on the construction, remodelling, repair or demolition of a defence project, who does any act, or omits to do anything which he is under a duty, either to the public or to any person, to do, the natural and probable consequence of which act or omission is to obstruct or delay the production, transportation, storage or delivery of such munitions or supplies or the construction, remodelling, repair or demolition of a defence project, or who prevents or attempts to prevent any other person from engaging in the production, transportation, storage or delivery of munitions of war or supplies or in the construction, remodelling, repair or demolition of a defence project, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, but such person may at the election of the Attorney General of Canada or of the province be prosecuted upon indictment, and if convicted shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

Provided however that, a person shall not be guilty of an offence under this Regulation by reason only of his taking part in, or peacefully persuading any other person to take part in, a strike.

Definitions.

51C. The expressions "defence project", "munitions of war" and "supplies" where they occur in the two next preceding Regulations, 51A and 51B, shall have the same meaning as in The Department of Munitions and Supply Act.

PART VI

GENERAL AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Power to obtain information.

52. Without prejudice to any special provisions contained in these Regulations, any person shall, on being requested by or on behalf of a Minister of the Crown so to do, furnish or produce to such authority or person as may be specified in the request any such information or article in his possession as may be so specified, being information or an article which the authority or person making the request considers it necessary or expedient in the interests of the public safety, the defence of the realm or the efficient prosecution of the war to obtain or examine.

Notices.

53. (1) Any person by whom an order is made in pursuance of these Regulations or a person acting on behalf of such a person shall give public notice of the order in such manner as he may consider best adapted for informing persons affected by the order.

(2) Any constable or any member of His Majesty's naval, military or air forces or any person acting on behalf of the person issuing any such order as aforesaid, may affix any such notice to or cause it to be displayed on any premises, vehicle or vessel and may for such purposes enter any premises at any reasonable time during the day.

(3) No person except under lawful authority shall remove, alter, deface or obliterate any notice posted pursuant to the provisions of this Regulation.

54. If any person—

- (a) in answer to any request made in pursuance of any of these Regulations, or any order made under any of these Regulations, makes any statement, or furnishes any information, which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false in a material particular; or False statements.
- (b) makes such a statement as aforesaid in any account, declaration, estimate, return or other document which he is required by any of these Regulations or by an order under any of these Regulations to make;

he shall be guilty of an offence against that Regulation.

55. No person shall obstruct any servant of His Majesty, or member of a fire brigade acting in the course of his duty as such, or any person exercising any powers, or performing any duties, conferred or imposed on him by or under any of these Regulations, or otherwise discharging any lawful functions in connection with the securing of the public safety or the safety of the State. Obstruction.

56. No person who obtains any information by virtue of these Regulations shall, otherwise than in connection with the execution of these Regulations or of an order, rule or by-law made under these Regulations, disclose that information except with permission granted by, or on behalf of, a Minister of the Crown. Restrictions on disclosing information.

Orders,
rules,
by-laws or
directions.

56A. Where by these Regulations power is conferred to make any orders, rules, by-laws or directions, the power shall be construed as including a power, exercisable in the like manner, and subject to the like consent and conditions, if any, to rescind, revoke, amend or vary the orders, rules, by-laws or directions and make others.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Licences,
permits,
etc.

57. (1) Any person claiming to be the holder of any permit, licence, certificate or written permission granted or issued for the purposes of any of these Regulations shall, on demand made in that behalf by any constable or by any person acting on behalf of His Majesty, produce the permit, licence, certificate or permission, as the case may be, to the person making the demand.

(2) If, with intent to deceive, any person alters or uses, or lends to, or allows to be used by any other person, a permit, licence, certificate or written permission granted or issued for the purposes of any of these Regulations, or makes or has in his possession any document so closely resembling such a permit, licence, certificate or permission as to be calculated to deceive, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Regulation.

(3) Any permit, licence, certificate or permission granted for the purposes of any of these Regulations may be revoked at any time by the authority or person empowered to grant it.

Power to enter and search
premises.

58. (1) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that a war offence has been, is being, or is about to be committed, and that evidence thereof is to be found at any premises specified in the information, he may grant a search warrant authorizing any senior police officer or any commissioned officer in His Majesty's forces, together with any other persons named in the warrant and any other constables or members of His Majesty's forces to enter the premises at any time or times within one month from the date of the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises and every person found therein, and to seize any article found in the premises or on any such person which the officer has reasonable ground for believing to be evidence of an offence as aforesaid.

(2) No woman shall, in pursuance of a warrant issued under this Regulation, be searched except by a woman.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph one of this Regulation every commissioned officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police shall be a justice of the peace.

58A. (1) A police or stipendiary magistrate or two justices of the peace may, with the consent of counsel representing the Attorney General of Canada or of the province, order that any article seized or proved to have been used in the commission of a war offence shall be forfeited to the Crown to be disposed of as the Attorney General of the province in which such forfeiture takes place may direct, or, if such article is not of a subversive nature, returned to the owner, notwithstanding that no person has been charged with, committed for trial for, or convicted of an offence in connection with such article: Provided that where a claim has been made by the owner of any such article before an order of forfeiture has been made that article shall not be destroyed unless it is of a subversive nature.

(2) No order shall be made under the authority of this Regulation until three months have expired from the date the article was seized and if no claim has been made for the return to the owner of such article the magistrate or justices of the peace may make an order, with the consent as aforesaid, on the ex parte application of the seizing authorities.

59. (1) The person driving, or in control of, any road vehicle in motion shall stop the vehicle on being required so to do by any constable in uniform or by any member of His Majesty's forces being in uniform and on duty.

Power to stop and search
vehicles.

(2) If—

- (a) as respects any road vehicle being on a public highway or in a place to which the public have access; or
- (b) upon any occasion on which the person driving, or in control of, a road vehicle has been lawfully required to stop but has failed to do so;

any constable, or any member of His Majesty's forces acting in the course of his duty as such, has reasonable ground for suspecting that there is to be found in the vehicle evidence of the commission of a war offence, he may stop and search the vehicle and may seize any article found therein which he has reasonable ground for believing to be evidence of the commission of such an offence.

The powers conferred by this paragraph shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any of the powers conferred by the last preceding Regulation.

(3) In this Regulation the expression "road vehicle" means any vehicle designed or adapted for use on roads.

Power to arrest without warrant.

60. Any constable, any member of His Majesty's forces acting in the course of his duty as such, or any person authorized by the Minister of Justice to act under this Regulation may arrest without warrant any person whom he has reasonable ground for suspecting of having committed a war offence.

Identification.

60A. (1) Subject as hereinafter mentioned, and without prejudice to any other powers in that behalf, a person who is detained under Regulation 21 of these Regulations or who is in lawful custody, charged with or convicted of any offence against these Regulations, may be photographed and measured by any constable or prison officer.

(2) The photographs to be taken may include a photograph of the full face, a photograph of the true profile and a full length photograph.

(3) The measurements to be taken may include:—

- (a) his height when standing;
- (b) the size and relative position of every scar and distinctive mark upon any part of his body; and
- (c) the external filament of the fingers and thumbs of both hands—to be taken by pressing them, first upon an ink plate, and then upon paper or cardboard, so as to leave a clear print of the skin surface.

(4) A photograph of a person taken in pursuance of the powers conferred by this Regulation shall not be published, except for the purpose of tracing him or shown to any person, other than a constable or servant of the Crown acting in the course of his duty or a person authorized by a constable or servant of the Crown so acting to see it.

(5) Where any person has been photographed and measured under this Regulation, all photographs (both negatives and copies), fingerprint impressions and records of measurements so taken shall, unless he is convicted of an indictable offence be destroyed on the expiration of this Regulation.

OFFENCES AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

61. (1) Without prejudice to the operation of sections 69 and 72 of the Criminal Code, any person who attempts to commit, or does any act preparatory to the commission of, an offence against any of these Regulations, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against that Regulation. Attempts to commit offences, and assisting offenders.

(2) No person, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that another person is guilty of an offence against any of these Regulations, shall give that other person any assistance with intent thereby to prevent, hinder or interfere with the apprehension, trial or punishment of that person for the said offence.

62. (1) For the purposes of the trial of a person for an offence against any of these Regulations, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place at which the same actually was committed, or at any place in Canada in which the offender may be found. Legal proceedings.

(2) In addition, and without prejudice to any powers which a court may possess to order the exclusion of the public from any proceedings if, in the course of proceedings before a court against any person for an offence against any of these Regulations or the proceedings on appeal, application is made by the prosecution, on the ground that the publication of any evidence to be given or of any statement to be made in the course of the proceedings would be likely to assist the enemy or to prejudice the public safety, the safety of the State or the efficient prosecution of the war, that all or any portion of the public shall be excluded during any part of the hearing, the court may make an order to that effect but the passing of sentence shall in any case take place in public.

corporations.

(3) Where the person guilty of an offence against any of these Regulations is a company or corporation, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director or officer of the company or corporation shall be guilty of the like offence unless he proves that the act or omission constituting the offence took place without his knowledge or consent, or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(4) Where any act is committed by or on behalf of or in the name of any association, organization or society which if committed by an individual person would constitute an offence against the provisions of Regulation 39 or 39A of these Regulations, each officer, or person acting or professing to act or holding himself out as an officer or otherwise performing or purporting to perform any executive or official work or duty for or on behalf of any such association, organization or society shall be deemed to have committed such act and be guilty of such offence unless he proves that the act constituting the offence took place without his knowledge or consent or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such act.

Penalties.

63. (1) Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of these Regulations, or any order, rule, by-law, or direction, made or given under any of these Regulations, shall be guilty of an offence against that Regulation.

(2) Where no specific penalty is provided, such person shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment; but such person may, at the election of the Attorney General of Canada or of the province, be prosecuted upon indictment, and if convicted shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both fine and imprisonment.

(3) No person who has been convicted upon indictment for an offence against these Regulations and sentenced to imprisonment, and who has given notice of appeal or made application for leave to appeal from such conviction shall, notwithstanding any statutory provision or other law to the contrary, be admitted to bail pending the determination of such appeal.

63A. (1) No person charged with an offence under these Regulations by reason of his having published any matter in any broadcast, in any newspaper, periodical or book or in any moving picture film shall be convicted under the said Regulations if it appears that the matter complained of has been passed for publication by any of the Chief Censors of Publications or any person having authority to act on their behalf. Publications passed by Chief Censor.

(2) In any proceeding under these Regulations a certificate purporting to be signed by one of the Chief Censors of Publications that any matter therein set out or described was or was not passed for publication by them or by any person authorized to act on their behalf shall without proof of the signature be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

64. Without prejudice to any special provisions contained in these Regulations, a notice to be served on any person for the purposes of any of these Regulations may be served by posting it addressed to that person at his last or usual place of abode or place of business. Service on corporations.

64A. If in any proceeding against a corporation for an offence created by these Regulations, or by any other regulations or orders made under the authority of the War Measures Act, the officer of the corporation to be served with a summons or notice of indictment in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Code cannot conveniently be met with, such summons or notice may be served by sending it by registered post to the head office of the corporation, or if there be no such office in Canada, by sending it by registered post to the corporation at any place where it trades or conducts its business in the province in which the proceeding is instituted and service so made shall have the same effect as if made in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Code. Service of notices.

65. Notwithstanding anything contained in any statute or other law, no person who has been detained or interned under the provisions of these Regulations, and while so Public office.

detained or interned, or who has been convicted of any offence against Regulation 39C of these Regulations, shall be eligible as a candidate for any public office at any municipal, provincial or Dominion election, or otherwise.

Limitation.

66. In the case of any offence punishable under these Regulations the complaint may be made, or the information laid, at any time during the continuance of the present war or within six months thereafter.

SCHEDULE "A"

P.C. 4304

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA

FRIDAY, the 30th day of August, 1940.

PRESENT:

THE DEPUTY OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL:

WHEREAS sub-paragraph (h) of paragraph (1) of Regulation 2 of the Defence of Canada Regulations defines "senior police officer" to mean certain senior officers therein referred to and

"any person upon whom the powers of a senior police officer are for the purposes of these Regulations conferred by the Governor in Council."

AND WHEREAS paragraph (1) of Regulation 58 of the said Regulations provides for the issuing of a search warrant in connection with war offences to any senior police officer;

AND WHEREAS by Order in Council P.C. 2929 of the twenty-ninth day of September, 1939, non-commissioned officers and constables of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, owing to difficulties in many localities in having present a senior officer, were for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of paragraph (1) of the said Regulation 58 deemed to be senior police officers within the meaning of sub-paragraph (h) of paragraph (1) of the said Regulation 2;

AND WHEREAS sub-inspectors of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are not included in the definition of "senior police officer," nor are they included within the classes referred to in the said Order in Council P.C. 2929;

AND WHEREAS the Minister of Justice states that it is considered desirable that the powers of a senior police officer should be conferred upon sub-inspectors of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, sub-inspectors, non-commissioned officers and constables of every provincial police force, and every chief of police of a municipal police force for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of paragraph (1) of the said Regulation 58 for the reason that it is difficult in many localities to have present at every search a senior officer.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Deputy of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice and pursuant to the provisions of sub-paragraph (h) of paragraph (1) of Regulation 2 of the Defence of Canada Regulations is hereby pleased to confer the powers of a senior police officer, for the purposes of paragraph (1) of Regulation 58 of the said Regulations upon sub-inspectors of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, sub-inspectors, non-commissioned officers and constables of every provincial police force, and every chief of police of a municipal police force.

(Sgd.) H. W. LOTHROP,
Assistant Clerk of the Privy Council.
